CORPORATION TAX IS NOW EXTENDED

All Persons, Firms and Co-partnerships Subject to New Federal Law

MEASURE PASSES SENATE

Democrats and Progressives Unite in Fight — Reciprocity is Repealed. Lower Duty on Print Paper. Sugar Schedule Next.

Washington, July 26.—Democrats and Progressives united again in the Senate tonight and by a vote of 36 to 18, passed the Democratic excise tax bill, extending the present tax on corporations to the business of individuals, private firms and co-partnerships. Attached to the measure, also by the aid of the Republican votes, were amendments for the repeal of the Canadian Reciprocity law and a fixing of a $2-per-ton tariff on print paper and for the establishment of a permanent non-partisan tariff commission.

The second day's victory for the Democratic-Progressive combination came after a debate lacking interest. The passage of the excise bill became certain early in the day and the Republican leaders offered little opposition to it. Senator Borah, in a fight to have his income tax bill substituted for the "tax on business," lost by a vote of 33 to 23.

The Democratic majority stood almost solidly against any change in the House bill that would threaten its defeat. He declared the "tax on business" was clearly constitutional, while an income tax law had once been held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court and might again suffer that fate, until the States ratify the amendment to the Federal constitution.

On the passage of the excise bill, the Democrats were supported by the following progressives and insurgent Republicans: Bourne, Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Gronna, Jones, Kenyon, LaFollette, Nelson, Poindexter, Townsend and Works.

The measure was changed from the original House bill only in minor particulars, except for the addition of the Canadian Reciprocity repeal, and the permanent tariff commission provision. It will go back to the House for the approval of that body and it is believed that an agreement soon will be reached, so that a perfected measure can be laid before the President for his approval.

The excise measure would levy upon all persons, firms or co-partnerships, an annual tax equal to 1 per cent. of net income in excess of $5,000.

Senator Cummins' permanent tariff board amendment, which was carried once yesterday in the wool fight, and then lost in the final upheaval when the LaFollette bill passed, was attached to the excise bill by a vote of 38 to 29. All of the Democrats except Pomerene, of Ohio, voted against the tariff board, while all of the Republicans except Heyburn, of Idaho, supported it.

The chief fight, aside from that centering about Senator Borah's income measure, came upon the Canadian Reciprocity amendment offered by Senator Gronna, of North Dakota. The amendment adopted by the Senate, 37 to 26, provides for the complete repeal of the reciprocity law, and for the establishment of a rate of $2 per ton on print paper imported from Canada in place of the present duty of $3.75.

Senator Bacon finally offered an amendment to repeal all of the reciprocity law except the free paper section. It was defeated 37 to 27.

The Gronna amendment was then adopted.

The Senate made a change in the excise bill so that the tax would not apply to labor organizations, agricultural associations, or fraternal organizations of an insurance character. This amendment was offered by Senator Fletcher. A plan to check the tobacco monopoly by a special excise tax on production above a certain amount, offered by Senator Hitchcock, was defeated.

The third of the Democratic tariff measures, the sugar bill, will come up tomorrow under the agreement in the Senate. It is believed tonight that the combination of Democrats and Progressives will be continued throughout the third day of the tariff programme so that a sweeping reduction in the sugar tariff will have been approved by the Senate before the end of tomorrow's session.

The Democrats have determined to support Senator Williams' bill introduced today, providing a one-third cut in all sugar tariffs, and a cut of 40 per cent. on the molasses tariff. The House bill provides a basis of free sugar, but this will not be endorsed by the Democrats. It is expected that a compromise measure will be offered by the Republican leaders, reducing the existing duty of $1.93 on refined sugar by from 20 to 40 cents per 100 pounds.

This compromise may be adopted by the Senate, but it is expected that in the end it will give way, as the compromise wool bill did, to a Progressive bill still further reducing the duty.

AN EYE WITNESS TELLS OF MURDER

"Bridgie" Webber and Jack Sullivan Held Without Bail in Rosenthal Case

WAITER TELLS GRAPHIC STORY

Identified Two Men and Told of Shooting—Mayor Gaynor Takes Decided Stand—Must Be Evidence Before Dismissal

New York, July 26.—Testimony that "Bridgie" Webber, in whose gambling house the murder gang, which killed Herman Rosenthal is said to have congregated, for the assassination, and Jack Sullivan, alleged go-between for certain of the police and gamblers, were in front of the Hotel Metropole at the time Rosenthal was slain, was given in coroner's court this afternoon. Following these statements Sullivan, who has been held as a material witness, was re-arrested on a charge of homicide, and Webber was held without bail for the coroner's inquest August 15th.

Louis Crese, a waiter, testified at the hearing that he saw the assasination. Two men sat in the "murder car" while four others who stood nearby shot Rosenthal down as he came from the hotel. Crese identified Webber as one he had recognized on the scene and pointed out Sullivan as having been there immediately after the shooting.

John Reisler, known in the tenderloin as "John The Barber," testified that he had seen Webber near the Metropole after the shooting and that "Bridgie" was running.

Mayor Gaynor took a decided stand today in the turmoil that has arisen over the inquiry. He wrote to Police Commissioner Waldo directing that Lieutenant Becker, who was charged by Rosenthal with being in league with the gamblers in this city, shall not be suspended or put on trial without evidence to justify his conviction and dismissal. On the "other charge" that Becker instigated the murder of Rosenthal the Mayor said: "This is possible, but so far there is no evidence to support the charge."

Patrolman William E. File, who was in the Metropole at the time of the murder, was served with charges that he failed to take proper action in causing the apprehension of the murderers.

The hearing of "Dago" Frank and Sam Paul, both charged with complicity in the murder, was put over by the coroner's jury until Monday.

There was a dramatic session of the coroner's hearing this afternoon and Louis Crese was the leading figure. His testimony was the first brought out relative to the actual slaying of the gambler. Crese said he had arrived in New York the day before the shooting to look for a job and happened along by the Metropole just before the assassination. A large gray automobile was standing there and in the car were a chauffeur and one man. Four men stood near the "murder car."

"They said to me," declared the witness, "what do you want here?" I did not answer them and they said: "Go away and mind your own business." A man came from the Metropole and he put his hand to his head. As he did this the men scattered to the street. A man came from the hotel behind the man who gave the signal and then the four men in the street started shooting."

"Did you see anyone there whom you now see in the court room?" ask-District Attorney Whitman.

Crese rose and surveyed the faces before him. Then he raised his hand and his index finger was pointing to "Bridgie" Webber.

"I started running after the shooting," the witness declared.

"The shots did not come one, two, three, but nearly together. Webber, also was running, and spoke to some man as he passed. It was nearly as light as day and I saw him plainly."

At this point Coroner Feinberg held Webber without bail for the inquest.

Crese then was asked to go through the court room and see if he recognized any more men who were at the scene of the murder. After a careful inspection of Jack Sullivan he declared that he had been at the scene immediately after the shooting. Sullivan's arrest followed shortly on a charge of homicide.

Crese left police headquarters late today accompanied by two detectives who were instructed not to leave him until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning when he will be taken back to headquarters.

ARGUMENT TO JURY.

Two More Speeches in Allen Trial at Wytheville, Va.

Wytheville, Va., July 26.—The arguments of attorneys consumed today in the trial of Claude Allen, and when court adjourned tonight two more speeches remained to be delivered. Attorney Willis will close for the defense tomorrow morning and Joseph C. Wyser for the commonwealth, after which the case will go to the jury. It is thought this will be not later than noon. The prisoner's mother and his fiancee were with him in court today.

PLATFORM BREAKS THIRTY INJURED

WERE ON MASONIC OUTING

Sad Ending of Pleasant Affair Near Wheeling, W. Va.—Posts Rotted by Running Water Underneath—Wounded.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 26.—Many persons were injured, a number seriously late tonight when 200 Masons and their families, seated on a wooden platform, covering a small ravine in front of an open air theatre, at Wheeling Park, were precipitated to the ground by the sudden collapse of the structure.

The drop to the bottom of the ravine was 15 feet. Thirty persons were seriously hurt. One of these, Miss Elsie Little, of Ben Wood, W. Va., sustained a broken back and will die. The others received fractures of the arms, limbs and ribs or internal injuries and bruises.

Scores of others suffered from scatches and shock.

The annual outing of the Masonic Club, of Wheeling, was being held in the park. Over 200 persons were on the platform. At the conclusion of a vaudeville programme the portion of the audience sitting near the stage arose. Suddenly the tan bark covered platform beneath them began to give way. There was a wild scramble for safety, followed immediately by the collapse of the structure. The mass of humanity dropped 15 feet and piled in a heap at the bottom of the muddy ravine.

Assistance was plentiful in the park, while a score of physicians were rushed to the scene from the city. Many of the injured were unconscious when rescued.

A park restaurant was converted into an emergency hospital. Later the more seriously hurt were taken to hospitals, while others were sent to their homes in automobiles and ambulances.

An examination of the collapsed platform showed that the posts sustaining it had rotted from running water beneath.

TAFT MAN USES WILSON BOOK.

And House Roars as Hill Cites Jersey Governor's Doctrine.

Washington, July 25.—Representative Hill, of Connecticut, a stanch Taft Republican, was the victim of a flareback today in the House when he found an opportunity to preach some of Governor Woodrow Wilson's doctrine to his fellow Congressmen.

At the time the House had under consideration an emergency appropriation of $5,000 for crusading against the "army worm" in the South. Mr. Hill asked for five minutes to discuss the matter. After saying that he was for the appropriation, he began reading from one of Governor Wilson's books about the duties and faults of Congress.

Almost instantly the Democratic side broke into loud applause. This was unexpected. The applause should ordinarily have come from the Republican side. As he reached the end of each sentence the applause grew louder and when he finished both sides were laughing at him.

A bit "riled" at the surprising effect of his remarks and by the rejoinder of Mr. Clayton, of Alabama, that "it was the best speech the gentleman from Connecticut ever made," Mr. Hill started all over again.

This time he read what Governor Wilson had once said about Presidential candidates. There was more Democratic applause, and more Republican laughter. Finally, the New Englander, disgusted with the sense of humor of the House, sat down.

TROUBLE AT PAINT CREEK.

Striking Miners Clash With Deputies, One Man Killed.

Charleston, W. Va., July 26.—In a riot at Muklow today located in the disturbed Paint Creek mining district, one miner was killed when a party of men on strike and deputies engaged in a battle. Hundreds of shots were exchanged. Outside the one victim, however, it is not known that any one else was injured.

That the situation in the Paint Creek district is more critical today than for any time since the miners struck, April 1st, was indicated by orders sent to West Virginia troops in camp at Mount Gretna, Pa., to hurry to the trouble zone. A battalion left the Summer camp in Pennsylvania immediately and is expected at the Paint Creek mines by noon tomorrow.

It is said tonight that the shooting today was not done by miners of the Paint Creek district, but principally by foreign miners of adjoining towns. It is said most of the disturbers left the Paint Creek district tonight under the cover of darkness.

Washington, July 26.—The Senate came to the rescue of Southern farmers today by passing a resolution appropriating immediately $20,000 to check the ravages of the army worm in the States where crops are threatened. This was supplemental to the appropriation of $5,000 which the House and Senate have voted for the same purpose.

ADVANCED IDEAS ARE PROMULGATED

"Bull Mooser" Gives Inkling of His Proposed "Confession of Faith"

SOCIALISTIC OR ANARCHISTIC

May Be Called Both, He Surmises—Old Parties Are Condemned and The Progressives Are Extolled—Wage Scales

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 26.—The "Confession of Faith," of Col. Roosevelt is now down in black and white, the finishing touches having been made today. When he has completed the recital of his doctrines in Chicago on the night of August 5th, he probably will be called socialistic or anarchistic and may be both, he said tonight. But he insisted that the measures he advocated must come.

"They are a corrective to socialism and an antidote to anarchy."

Two of the more striking measures favored by Col. Roosevelt are the fixing by law of minimum wage scales for women workers and a guarantee by law to workmen employed in what he calls the "continuous industries of eight-hour shifts and one day's rest in every seven."

Although Col. Roosevelt has taken unusual precautions to prevent the contents of his speech from becoming known prematurely, he gave a glimpse behind the veil tonight. He dealt almost entirely with broad economic problems, and gave the impression that he will lay emphasis chiefly upon subjects of this nature, which he says both the Democratic and Republican parties have ignored in their platforms, rather than upon matters which might be placed under the head of partisan politics.

Col. Roosevelt said at the outset he had not wished at the present to take up new things, but had come to the conclusion that he must develop some of his doctorines in his Chicago speech and had gone further than ever before in advocating what might be regarded by his opponents as radical measure.

Business should be encouraged in every legitimate way, he said, but at the same time business prosperity should be made the "hand maiden of the people," and the tendency should be toward a diversification of the ownership of property. The lines along which business has developed recently, as best illustrated by the formation of huge corporations, should be recognized, he said, and the effort should be to correct attendant evils rather than attempt to abolish large corporations or restrict their size. DRUNKEN ORGIES PREVAILED

Charges to This Effect Made Against Regulars and Guardsmen at Camp Douglas, Wis.—Thorough Investigation Ordered.

Chicago, July 26.—Moved by charges that United States regular troops and various State militias encamped at Camp Douglas, Wis., for army maneuvers had insulted and attacked women and had indulged in a drunken orgy, officials of the War Department in Chicago today ordered an investigation to be made at Camp Douglas and other points where the troops have been mobilized.

Gen. Ramsey D. Potts, commander of the Central Division, embracing the regular army troops in 19 States, telegraphed Major Carl R. Reichmann, chief umpire, in charge of the maneuvers, to inquire into the charges and the extent to which the regular troops were involved.

Investigation is also said to be planned to ascertain the conduct of Wisconsin and Illinois militiamen who, with regular troops from Leavenworth, Kas., and Fort Sheridan, formed the "Blue" army against which the charges were made.

The charges involve the conduct of the "Blue" army while it was encamped at Camp Douglas, near a town of the same name. The "Red" army, forming the hostile side of the battle plan, was 15 miles away and is said not to have been involved.

The charges made to Gen. Potts and which prompted him to order an investigation are: "That almost one-third of the 3,000 soldiers composing the 'blue' army were drunk a few hours before the campaign was to begin; that although the men were supposed to be on the 'war footing' when they took the field at 5 A. M., on July 25th, all the saloons in the town of Camp Douglas were crowded with soldiers until 1 A. M. the same morning; that the officers failed to keep the soldiers in the camp; that women were insulted in the camp and in the town; that a girl 20 years old was attacked by a dozen soldiers and that although she reached the railway station at 1 o'clock in the morning crying for help, no one was arrested and no investigation was made; that many fights occurred among the soldiers; that slurring remarks were made to women who came from surrounding towns both with and without escort."

Governor Surprised.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 26.—Governor Francis E. McGovern, who is in Milwaukee today, was surprised at printed stories of alleged drunken orgies among the regulars and National guardsmen participating in the maneuvers at Camp Douglas.

The Governor stated that when he was at Camp Douglas a week ago he was highly impressed with the improvement in conduct over former years.

"If any debauchery has been going on," he said, "it has not been brought to my attention."

Strikers Say They Are Starved; Want Steward Discharged

Hancock, Mich., July 25.—Alleging that they did not get enough to eat, the entire crew of the Anchor Line passenger steamer Octorora struck this morning, tying up the boat at this port, with 300 tourists on board.

The men refuse o return to work until the steward is discharged.

THAW REMANDED TO ASYLUM

Justice Keogh Hols Young Pittsburg Millionaire Still Insane and Dangerous to Society—Back to Mattewan From Jail.

White Plains, N. Y., July 26.—Harry K. Thaw, in the eyes of the law, is still insane and must remain in the asylum where he was placed on February 1, 1908, after he had killed Stanford White. Justice Martin J. Keogh, of the Supreme Court, today denied Thaw's application for freedom. The court took the ground that Thaw's release would be dangerous to public safety.

In his opinion Justice Keogh briefly sketched the attempts made by Thaw in 1908 and 1909 to obtain his discharge from the hospital. In both instances Justice Keogh said the court held that Thaw was then insane and that it would be dangerous to the public peace and safety to grant his discharge.

"The present writ," said the justice, "was obtained to secure the release of Harry K. Thaw on the ground that he is now sane and the question of his present sanity or insanity was the subject of an inquiry occupying 18 days, during which he had the aid of most able and faithful counsel."

Justice Keogh said that there would be no useful purpose in reviewing the history of the present case.

"My whole duty is fully performed," said Justice Keogh, "when I decide the single question presented for decision, namely: 'Is Harry K. Thaw at present sane or insane, and would his release be dangerous to the public peace and safety?'

"Having listened to all the testimony I am of the opinion that Harry K. Thaw is still insane and that his discharge would be dangerous to the public peace and safety."

The writ of habeas corpus upon which Thaw retained his temporary release from the Mattewan State Hospital is dismissed, and the court orders that Thaw be returned to the custody of the superintendent of that institution. Thaw has been living at the local jail in charge of the sheriff since his case opened early in June.

Thaw procured a copy of the decision shortly after it had been rendered. He read it only with seeming indifference.

"It is as I thought," he said. "I am sending the sad word to my family. It would have been better had I been acquitted like Capt. Haines."

A little later Thaw went to the jail office where he telephoned his sister, the former Countess of Yarmouth, who is staying in Westbury, L. I.

Thaw's mother returned to Pittsburg four days ago after remaining in White Plains throughout the trial.

It was stated by an acquaintance who has come in contact with Thaw much of late, that the Pittsburger really lost heart after the testimony of Dr. J. W. Russell, superintendent of the Mattewan Insane Asylum. Dr. Russell testified that in his opinion Thaw might commit another murder if set at liberty.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 26.—Heat claimed the first victim of the Summer here when J. D. Walsh, a plasterer, died at the county hospital. Walsh was overcome while at work. Owing to peculiar atmospheric conditions deaths from heat are few in Florida and so rarely occur that many of the older residents usually attribute fatalities to some other cause.

GRAFT IN DETROIT BURNS AGAIN BUSY

Eight Aldermen and Secretary of Council Committees Arrested Last Night

OTHERS BEING LOOKED FOR

Charged With Engineering Property Sale From City to Wabash Railroad—"Honest Tom" Among the Number.

Detroit, Mich., July 26.—Eight aldermen and the secretary of the Common Council Committee were placed under arrest this afternoon on charges of accepting bribes and conspiracy to accept a bribe for their votes and influence in the passing of a measure affecting city property recently transferred to the Wabash railroad. At least six other arrests of aldermen are expected at any moment, and it is alleged that $3,700 passed hands in sums of from $100 to $1,000. The bribery was consummated and the arrests accomplished under the personal supervision of Detective William J. Burns.

The officials already arrested are: Thomas Glinnan, president of the council, who is alleged to have received $1,000; E. R. Schreiter, Jr., secretary of council committee, and also secretary of the American League of Municipalities, who is charged with conspiracy to bribe and agreeing to accept $500; Alderman Joseph L. Theison, said to have accepted $500; and Martin J. Ostrowski, alleged to have received $200; Alderman Patrick O'Brien, conspiracy; Alderman Louis Tossy, said to have received $200; Alderman Frank J. Mason, Alderman Louis Brozo and Alderman Deimel, the last three being charged with accepting $100 each.

Alderman Glinnan has long been known in city politics as "Honest Tom." When arrested this afternoon it is said he turned over $1,000 and made a complete confession. Schreiter, who, it is claimed by the authorities, engineered the affair, was arrested in his office. He had not received any money, but the officers claim that he went to the office of the detectives, who were acting under the guise of Wabash railroad officials, to get his money and discovered the officers who had just arrested Glinnan.

The detectives claim that they have caught their men not only with marked money, but by telephonic testimony and phonographic record.

The investigation, which culminated in the arrests today, has been going on since February, when rumors of graft in the councilmanic body began to assume serious proportions.

Mayor William B. Thompson sought the services of detectives and Andrew H. Green, a prominent manufacturer, agreed to finance the probe. Soon after the investigation was begun the Wabash railroad applied for the closing of a Detroit street on the ground that it wanted to erect a warehouse and otherwise increase its shipping facilities. The application was held up in the council for a time. Then suddenly the council granted the application by vote of several members who had previously opposed the measure.

Meanwhile the Burns operative, who represented himself to be a land agent for the Wabash, had been at work. He had entered, according to the charges, into negotiations with the secretary of the Common Council Committee.

Eventually, it was decided, it is alleged, that several who had been opposing the street measure would withdraw their opposition for $100 each. Some of the Aldermen, however, are said to have held out for more. It was then agreed that different amounts would, if necessary, be allowable and yesterday the aldermen began to draw their money. The last person to receive his share, it is declared, was Glinnan.

This is the first exposure of its kind that has ever been made in the common council of Detroit.

NEW YORK HEADQUARTERS.

Old Fifth Avenue Hotel Site Selected by the Democrats.

New York, July 26.—The Democratic National Committee selected headquarters today in the new Fifth Avenue building, at 23rd street and Fifth avenue. Rooms were taken on the fifth floor and the committee will meet there Monday when plans for actively starting the campaign will be put under way.

The Fifth avenue building stands on the site occupied for many years by the Fifth Avenue Hotel, famous for its "Amen Corner," and as the mecca of Republican politicians during the lifetime of the late Senator Thomas Platt.

CANTALOUPE CROP.

Movement About to be Concluded in Scotland County.

Laurinburg, N. C., July 26.—The Exchange of yesterday says:

"This week concludes the movement of cantaloupes from this county. Already the shipments have been reduced to a very few cars a day. Although the production per acre was somewhat shorter than has been the case in some years past, the acreage showed up to be considerably greater than ever before and the result is the largest shipment of cantaloupes from Scotland county that has ever been known.

"There have been handled by the several railroads of the county about 750 cars of cantaloupes grown in Scotland county this season. An average car is something like 400 crates, or over, 400 crates being the minimum. Taking this as a basis, there have been shipped from Scotland county this year to the Northern markets at least 300,000 crates of cantaloupes.

"The prices have varied from $2 down to two cents; only a few of the former and only a few of the latter. The prices have generally ranged round about the $1 mark which, while not making any great amount of money for the growers, at least makes the handling of the 'lopes profitable. Another feature to be considered is the great amount of hay to be cut from the land planted to cantaloupes. Altogether, the cantaloupe proposition has proved this season, while not all that was honed, yet it has not been wholly unsatisfactory."

GRAND CIRCUIT MEET

Several Events of Interest on Racing Card Yesterday

Detroit, July 26.—At the final day's racing of the Grand Circuit meet the 2:09 pace furnished the best sport of the day. In the first heat George Penn led around to the distance stand when Babe, coming with a rush, passed him in the last few yards and won by a safe margin. Molly Darling, Walter J., and Forest Prince were noses apart, a length back of the leaders. Babe led in the second heat until Molly Darling caught her a hundred yards from the end and beat her a half length at th ewire. The next time out, Babe shot out of the bunch half way down the stretch and won slowing down.

Macey won an easy victory with Zarrine in the 2:18 trot, drawing away from the field when ready and taking all three heats.

In the first heat of the 2:18 pace, Our Colona went out in front and was never headed, although the field was well bunched close behind him. Clara Paul took the next three with ease.

The free-for-all trot was little more than a procession, Billy Burk winning the two heats in hollow fashion.

"KID" McKOY ARRESTED.

Charged With Larceny in London—Nobility Interested.

London, July 26.—"Kid" McCoy, the American boxer, was arrested today on a provisional extraditional warrant and brought up at the Bow Street Police Court on a charge of larceny alleged to have been committed at Ostend. The magistrate, Mr. Derutzen, remanded him without bail. McCoy informed the magistrate that he was entirely ignorant of the charge against him, but Mr. Derutzen refused to grant bail until he had heard the particulars of the charge, which have not yet arrived here.

According to the Scotland Yard authorities, McCoy is suspected of being implicated in a jewel robbery at the Grand Palace Hotel, Ostend. They admit, however, that the only evidence they have against him thus far is that McCoy has been seen in the company of suspects. McCoy's friends declare that he left Ostend before the robbery was committed.

The Scotland Yard officials say that the person robbed at Ostend was a Russian princess who was staying at the Grand Palace Hotel.

Their story is that the princess, who possessed jewelry valued at $280,000, was followed from Russia by a gang of thieves who engaged an adjoining room and entered her apartments during her absence. They secured a case containing jewels valued at $80,000, but in their hurry overlooked a larger case. The officials at Scotland Yard say that a man known as "Squeezerkamp" and a woman companion already have been arrested at Ostend, for alleged connection with the crime. McCoy, it is declared, recently was a guest at the Grand Palace Hotel with a party of friends.

The only large robbery reported from Ostend recently was that of the Princess of Thurn and Taxis, from whom ie was stated jewels valued at $80,000 were stolen in a hotel there The princess was a Miss Nicholls, of Uniontown, Pa. She was divorced in Pittsburg in 1906 from General Gerald Fitzgerald, of Ireland, and last November at the home of her mother, in Uniontown, married Prince Victor of Thurn and Taxis, a member of the Hungarian branch of his family.

MORE LEAGUE TALK

Virginia-Carolina and All-State Organizations Being Talked Of

Charlotte, N. C., July 26.—Agitation for the formation of a Virginia-Carolina League after this season with Lynchburg, Danville and Roanoke in Virginia; Greensboro, Winston and Charlotte, in North Carolina, has already started and promises to bear fruit. Lynchburg and Danville, both of which were ousted from the Virginia about the middle of the present season are anxious for the new league and it is understood that Roanoke will be kicked out of that company after this season. The North Carolina cities should not object to the organization of the new league since it could not be worse than the present personnel of the Carolina Association.

The Winston-Salem Journal makes the following pertinent comment on the subject:

"The break in the Carolina Association has caused the talk of a differently constituted league to be revived. There seems to be at least two feasible plans. First, a Virginia-Carolina organization, including the present North Carolina towns and the Virginia towns of Roanoke, Danville and Lynchburg; and on the other proposition is that of a State league which take into the present North Carolina group the other towns of Wilmington, Raleigh and Durham or Salisbury. For many reasons the latter combination would seem to be the best. The Virginia towns that are spoken of have already during this season failed to hold out in an organization which has a smaller salary limit than has this one; and there would hardly seem to be any advantage in taking in towns that have failed in a weaker association. On the other hand, Raleigh and Wilmington have in previous seasons proved their worth as good baseball towns and both are now ready and anxious to come to terms with the Carolina League. With these two cities in the list with Charlotte, Greensboro and Winston-Salem, there would be no difficulty in selecting the sixth club. The present seems to be a favorable time for considering some arrangements for another season."

Indianapolis, Ind., July 26.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic nominee for the Vice Presidency, who returned to his office late yesterday after a vacation, today began work on his notification speech. No time has been set yet for notifying the Governor officially of his nomination.

BIG BALL GAME TODAY

Atlantic Coast Line and Delgado Teams Will Try for Honors and Purse at League Park This Afternoon

Wilmington fans will once more have an opportunity of witnessing lively scenes at League Park this afternoon when the Eastern Carolina champions will give the strong Delgado team an opportunity to come into possession of the championship of this neck of the woods

The cotton mill boys have long harbored a suspicion in their minds that to them rightfully belonged the laurels that have been allowed to stay with the Railroaders, and have on several occasions been anxious to cross swords with them, and the game this afternoon is the outcome. The Railroad team, looking back on past performances, is confident that they can handle their rivals easily and both teams will go into the game with the same confidence with which Rube Marquard went up against Jimmy Lavender on a memorable day not long ago.

The line-up for today's battle looks exceedingly good for both sides. The Railroaders will present practically the same solid brick wall with which they made such a phenomenal record in the City League a year ago, with the old reliables, Green and Starritt at the principal positions. Charlie Terry, of bull-hitting fame, will hold down the initial sack, while "Skeet" Emerson will cover acres of ground around the keystone. Jack Hoey, late of the Carolina League, who is sojourning in the city, will be seen on short, and Houston, considered by many as one of the best amateur ball players in Wilmington, will be stationed at third.

Hines, Shaw and Duls will form an impenetrable wall in the outfield. For the Milltown boys Holt, formerly a star on the A. & M. baseball team, will do the pitching, with Watson at the receiving end The line-up and batting order of the teams will be as follows

Atlantic Coast Line—Hines, lf; Hoey, ss; Houston, 3b; Terry 1b; Starritt, c; Duls, rf; Shaw, cf; Green, p; Emerson 2b.

Delgado—Watson, c; Ansley, 2b; Carr, cf; Lutterloh, 3b; Carlston, rf; Wood, 1b; Lindey, ss; Holt, p; Riggins, lf.

One of the decided features, aside from the real merit which the game is certain to show, will be the presence of the Delgado band, which will discourse lively music during the game. The band will make a circuit of the city this morning at 11 o'clock to advertise the game. Several purses have been put up on the outcome of the game, and it was reported last night that all told the winner would pull down a little over $100, outside of 75 per cent of the gate receipts which will go to them. While the boys would all exert every effort and influence to win, just for the sporting spirit they feel about the matter, this added encouragement will no doubt go far towards guaranteeing the hardest fought battle seen here in many days.

The Tidewater Power Company will arrange a convenient schedule to and from the park, and the service will be so arranged that patrons may take either the special or beach cars from the game. The admission, 25 cents admits everyone to the grandstand, as long as it will hold the crowd, with access to the bleachers after the stand is filled. This will probably be the only game played at League Park and doubtless a large crowd of rooters and admirers of both teams will be present.

BALLOON RACES.

Goodyear Gets Last Start in Elimination Contest Today.

Kansas City, Mo., July 26.—Luck, one of the great qualities in winning a balloon race, cast its lot tonight with the balloon Goodyear, of Akron, Ohio, when in the drawing for places of start in the National elimination race tomorrow, L. M. Bumbaugh, pilot of the Goodyear, secured No. 8.

There are but eight contestants in the race, which will choose three American balloons for the international contest in Germany this Fall. Bumbaugh will be the last pilot to leave the ground. His start will be in the cool part of the evening, while his less fortunate fellows will be forced to go while the sun is hot. Much gas is lost through contact with the sun's rays, and it is common belief among the followers of the sport that the man who starts last has a "leg up" on winning.

Although the weather was cloudy and rain fell most of the day, the Aero Club officials said tonight nothing but severe weather would prevent the start tomorrow.

TWO EXECUTIONS.

Couple Pay Death Penalty in Death House at Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., July 26.—At sunrise this morning in the death house just outside the State prison wall, George Shelton and John Bailey were hanged for the murder of Ben Pettigrew, and old negro, and his two children. The two men walked to the scaffold without a tremor and nine minutes after the trap was sprung Bailey was pronounced dead, while Shelton was dead in 14 minutes. Emmett Alexander, who was to have hanged this morning, was granted a 10 days' respite by the Governor.

The murder of the old negro and his two children was deliberately planned—the men hiding beside the road and firing as Pettigrew drove up. The children—a boy and a girl—were chased along the road for some distance before they were shot.

New York, July 26.—John D. Rockefeller is making determined efforts to stop the advance of business into the private residence district, where his city home is located. For a long time retail trade has been moving slowly up Fifty-fourth street toward the Rockefeller home, but the Rockefeller agents have been watching the movements and during the past few months have been bidding in every parcel that was offered for sale at a price higher than the business buyer cared to pay.

..Theatrical..

The management of the Grand Theatre always endeavors to put on for its big Saturday patronage a bill in the moveys just a little better than any other day in the week and today will be no exception to the general rule. Not only will patrons of the Grand find the best in moving pictures at the Grand today but they will find an always cool and delightful auditorium and music by the theatre orchestra.

"The Lake of Dreams," a Selig, will perhaps be the feature in moving pictures. It is a tragedy of shattered ambitions and blasted ideals, strong in emotional interest and graphic in its application to modern-day conditions. It is essentially a story of ideals in which a little boy and girl, Manfred and Eloise, whose rich parents lived on adjoining estates, became companions and grew up side by side, innocent and ambitious. Their lives are fully developed in the picture which ends happily and leaving a pleasant taste in the mouth.

The other feature for today is, "The Father," an Edison, by Banister Merwin. tI is a powerfully appealing story and is told with a simplicity and a delicacy of art seldom seen outside of the big productions. The splendid cast seems inspired with the same spirit.

In addition to these two, there will be a third film and all told the Saturday offering at the Grand today ought to "pack 'em in." Remember the price at the Grand is now only five cents, afternoon and night.

At the Bijou.

Oh, joy! Boys and girls, look who's here. The Katzenjammer Kids, those angelic "kids" made famous in cartoon and on stage, will be at the New Bijou today in one of the biggest fun films that popular amusement palace has ever presented and it will indeed make a notable offering by itself. The Katzenjammers are going to be seen today in some of their most devilish pranks. They will be seen at school and the attempts of Hans and Fritz to dodge an etducation will call for roars of laughter. Be certain to take the youngsters to see the "Katzies" today. However, the comedy will furnish barrels of mirth for the grown-ups as well, so adults can't afford to miss it.

But this film will be only one of the many swell ones today at the Bijou and which will go to make a red letter Saturday; one long and delightfully to be remembered. Melies "Ghosts of Circle X Ranch" is a stirring dramatic film that will be appreciated. It is really a melodrama, because it possesses both the powerful emotions of the drama and the bubbling vein of the comedy. The scene in the naunted house is especially interesting.

The chief clown film for today is "The Part of Her Life." A leading lady has the role of a drunken person to portray in a play. She tries to rehearse at her boarding house, in the woods, etc., and is taken for a crazy female. It is a scream for pure laughter.

All the other films are fine ones, too, and, of course, the Bijou as ever will dispense solid comfort, especially in the way of cool breezes and perfect, healthful ventilation.

MASSEE IS RELEASED.

Macon Street Railway Magnate Gets Liberty at Spartanburg, S. C.

Augusta, July 26.—W. J. Massee, the Macon, Ga., capitalist, who was arrested yesterday at Spartanburg, S. C., on a requisition charging him with being a fugitive from Tennessee, today was released at Aiken by Governor Blease. The South Carolina executive received a telegram from Governor Hooper, of Tennessee, revoking the requisition in effect in that State.

Governor Blease notified the magistrate at Spartanburg to cancel the bond which he held for the return of Massee, and the capitalist left at once for his home in Macon.

Massee is wanted at Columbia, Tenn., in connection with a suit for slander field by R. M. Williams, of that city. In his message to Governor Blease the Tennessee executive said:

"Requisition for W. J. Massee issued by mistake. Requisition for Massee has been denied in Georgia. I do not think this is a case in which Massee should be followed by requisition into another State in which he may be temporarily found. I therefore most respectfully notify you that the requisition for the said Massee from Tennessee, now pending in your State, is hereby revoked."

Macon, Ga., July 26.—A drum and bugle corps and several hundred citizens gave a noisy welcome to W. Jordan Massee, the local capitalists, when the latter arrived here tonight after being released at Aiken, S. C., following the revocation of a requisition charging him with being a fugitive from Tennessee. Mr. Massee declined to discuss his trouble further than to say that he had been shadowed by detectives for several days prior to his arrest at Spartanburg yesterday.

POLITICAL FEUD FEARED

Hillsville Tragedy May Be Repeated At Trial of Mountaineers

Jonesville, Va, July 25.—The killing of Dr James W. Walden, a prominent Democrat, last night by Perry Wallin, a Republican leader, has fanned a smouldering political feud in the Blackwater district to a threatened outbreak All through the mountain district the clans are lining up

The coming trial of 200 mountaineers charged with vote-selling is causing the local authorities to make preparations for the protection of the court and jury They fear an outbreak paralelling the tragedy at Hillsville last March, when with the exception of one man the entire human fabric of the court was wiped out

Judge Skeen today received a message from the mountains reading:

"There are 38 in our party Before we will submit to going to jail we will die and go to ——"

Philadelphia, July 25.—Two men are dead and two others fatally injured as the result of the collapse of a scaffold at Edge Hill, near here.

Ernest Glover Pardoned—State Food Chemist Returns from West—National Guard Encampment—Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 26.—Ernest Glover, who has served since July, 1900, on a fifteen-year sentence, for attempted criminal assault in Cabarrus county, was pardoned today by Governor Kitchin on account of broken health, his condition being such that the physician thinks he cannot possibly live very long and it is thought that freedom may somewhat prolong his life. The pardon is conditioned on good behavior.

W. M. Allen, State Food Chemist, is just back from Seattle, Wash., where he attended the annual convention of the National Food Chemists' Association of which he was re-elected secretary, this in spite of the fact that the Wiley wing of the association, of which Mr. Wilson is a leading spirit, was in the minority this session and the opposing Wilson wing dominated completely. This was on account of the fact that the Wiley supporters are mostly from the eastern States, Wilson's strength being largely in the West. The Wiley supporters made a vain effort to get through a resolution commanding the progressive stand that Dr. Wiley has taken for enforcement of pure food laws. Also there was voted down a resolution urging that there be laws to prohibit the use of any chimical as a preservative in foods until it is proven to be harmless. This is distinctly a Wiley measure as opposed to the stand pat policy of Secretary Wilson, of the United States Department of Agriculture. So the Wilson wing voted it down. It was a matter of surprise and gratification to Mr. Allen that he was elected secretary again in spite of his Wiley and progressive affiliations.

Mr. W. S. Wilson, corporation clerk in the Department of State, who attended the Supreme Grand Lodge of Elks at Portland, traveled with Mr. Allen. They took the trip through the Canadian Rockies by way of Vancouver and their return was through the Yellowstone Park with special side trips that were most delightful.

Adjutant General R. L. Leinster, just back from the First Regiment encampment at Morehead, is delighted with the showings that have been made this season by the three regiments in their annual outing and believes that the greatest amount of real benefit that the North Carolina guardsmen have ever derived from encampments and maneuvers have resulted this season. And that the men have shown up finely in every way. The cavalry company, Troop A, of Lincolton, is now on its annual march Lincolnton to Blowing Rock, the march to be completed July 31st. The Summer encampments will be concluded August 5th to 16th by the companies of coast artillery, which go to Fort Caswell for ten days training in coast defense service.

Charters were issued today for the J. P. Green Milling Co., of Mocksville, capital $25,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed for operating grain mills and cotton gin; J. P. Green is principal incorporator. Another charter is for the Washington Lime Co., of Washington, N. C., capital $50,000 authorized and $3,000 subscribed by G. A. Stancil and others.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Mrs. Bernice Woodcock Meets Tragic Death In Pender County

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rooks, N. C., July 26.—On last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock death entered our midst and took from us a jewel—a precious, tender and loving mother and a patient and devoted wife, Mrs. Bernice Woodcock.

She was in the yard taking clothes from a line when struck by a bolt of lightning, killing her instantly. Her husband was in his shop only a few feet away and was stunned by the same bolt. On recovering, his first thought was his wife and looking around, found her prostrate on the ground. Running to her he picked her up gently in his arms and put her on the porch. He was alone, so called for help but no one heard him and he ran to the home of his son, that being the nearest house and from there the news spread and soon his home was surrounded by a host of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Woodcock was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moore, of Pender county, and in the year 1875 was married to Mr. A. M. Woodcock, of Pender county, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Woodcock, and for 36 years she had been a faithful and loving wife and cheerful, loving mother.

Mrs. Woodcock was a faithful member of the Moore's Creek Baptist church and all who knew her, knew her as a shining Christian.

Mrs. Woodcock was born May 18th, 1852. She leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, six children, four grandchildren, one sister, one brother, also a host of friends.

"A loved one from us has gone,
A heart we loved is still,
A vacant chair is in our home
Which never can be filled."

KINSTON NEWS NOTES.

Charge of Criminal Assault—Gathering at Pink Hill—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., July 26.—Jonah Holmes, colored, was arrested at Falling Creek, in this county, by Sheriff Nunn on a warrant sworn out by the father of Annie Coples, a 16-year-old negro girl, charged with attempted criminal assault. When arrested Holmes had a pistol on his person but offered no resistance. He was brought to jail and locked up to await trial at a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

Joseph Foy, a former Kinstonian, who now lives in California, is making a visit in the city. Mr. Foy taught school here in the '70s, and left many years ago to make his home with a son on a ranch in the southern part of the Pacific State. He was met at the Norfolk Southern depot by a number of his old pupils, who gave him quite a little ovation, after which he was driven in an automobile to the home of Rev. C. W. Howard, where he will spend part of his time while here. Mr. Foy was delighted with the progressive changes in his former home.

The first meeting of the Boy Scouts was held in the armory here and attended by a large and enthusiastic number of young Kinstonians. Officers were elected and plans of organization were made. It is probable that several troops will be organized here, owing to the large number of boys showing interest by attending the initial meeting.

An affair of unusual interest in the thriving town of Pink Hill is to take place Sunday, when the annual sermon in the new Union Church there will be preached by W. S. Key, one of the most notable characters in this section. Excursions will be operated by the local line of railroad which connects Kinston with Pink Hill, and the affair will take the form of an all-day religious exercise, including a picnic dinner on the church grounds. Mr. Key has preached an "annual sermon" at the church for four years, and the sermon has come to be an event of great importance in the little town. Mr. Key, who is taking an acuve part in the social and industrial development of this region, is perhaps the most extraordinary person in the section. An Englishman by birth, he has served at many trades and professions, including physician, lawyer, preacher, lecturer, journalist, musician, bridge-builder and other crafts, in many parts of the world, and is acting in all of these parts and others in the vicinity of his present home in Pender county, where he has made a model truck farm, which is his special hobby at present. The plantation is known as the "Carolina Industrial School Farm" and is an example for the farmers near it. Mr. Key at one time represented the Illustrated London News, and has been correspondent for other big English papers in foreign lands. In addition to his other works, he was a locomotive workman in an English railroad shop for eight years, and in sharp contrast, has written several books, including biographical works of some note. In fact, this man, the most unusual character possibly in East Carolina, has been about as completely a jack of all trades as any man living, and even more so than Charles Reade's hero. Hundreds of people will hear his discourse Sunday from many miles around, for the event has grown in popularity with each repetition.

VETERANS' REUNION.

Winston-Salem Making Preparations to Entertain Old Soldiers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., July 26.—The citizens of Winston-Salem with characteristic civic pride and with unbounded admiration for the men who wore the gray, are making extensive and elaborate preparations for the annual meeting of the North Carolina division of the United Confederate Veterans on the 7th and 8th of August. It is a well known fact that the people of Winston-Salem never do things in a half-way style. Whatever is undertaken is well done or not done at all, and in the preparations that are being made to care for and entertain the 2,000 and more old soldiers that are expected to attend this reunion, everything possible is being done to make our ever welcome visitors comfortable and happy.

It will be remembered that Winston-Salem entertained the veterans four years ago, and the boys went home delighted with their reception and entertainment. The invitation to again visit Winston-Salem was extended in that spirit of loyalty to the veterans which has ever characterized the people, and now that the invitation has been accepted and marching orders have been issued, the boys of '61 will be received with open arms and glad hearts by men, women and children.

Committees are at work preparing comfortable sleeping quarters, as well as places where good things to eat and drink may be found in abundance. There will be something doing all the time. Addresses by distinguished Confederate Veterans will be a feature of the convention. The programme will be interesting from start to finish.

Reduced rates on the railroads as usual have been applied for, and the exact fare can be learned from any station by enquiring of the local agent.

This is no formal invitation which Winston-Salem extends to the leaves of a fast thinning line. It is a hearty and sincere expression of the love and admiration that we have for brave men who knew no fear in the days that tried men's souls. We consider ourselves fortunate and honored in having you among us. We want to know you and shake your hand, and we want our children and our children's children to know what manner of men have made the Southland the grandest place in this glorious country of ours. Don't deprive us of the pleasure of being at your service once more.

JAMES SPRUNT INSTITUTE

Col. Pearsall Writes Interestingly of This Institution

Rocky Point, N. C., July 26.—Mr. Henry Farrior, of Kenansville, paid us a visit this week, and our reminiscences of the past—before and since beautiful naturally drained series of and entertaining nature, we having been class and school mates before, during and since the days of the sixties. He gives us some facts in regard to the James Sprunt Institute by stating that the Grove Academy of Duplin was chartered during 1786, two years before the University, Kenansville has been an educational centre for the past 125 years. Many men of Statewide and National reputation are numbered among those who drank of this fountain. Its past usefulness is perpetuated in the James Sprunt Institute, a boarding school for girls, which in a sense is the daughter of the Grove Academy, conducted by such able men of the past as Rev. James Sprunt, Mr. S. W. Clement, Hon. B. F. Grady, Prof. T. Oscar Rodgers, Mr. R. W. Millard, Prof. N. B. Webster, Rev. W. S. Shaw and others who left their impress on the youthful minds. They are in indelible and fadeth not away.

The old Grove Academy buildings have long since been removed, being inconveniently situated for the town to patronize. The buildings now being used are the "Seminary" building with numerous annexes, situated on a beautiful natural drained series of hills, watered by a free flowing spring, located among the pretty "Grove Hills." To the rear is the ante-bellum Pearsall mansion with its ample grounds and has been purchased and is a part of the plant. In point of hygiene this is a remarkable spot. The entire bill for medical services to the students and faculty for the past two years has amounted to only ten or eleven dollars.

This school's mision in the educational world is for the practical outfitting of the young women for the highest calling—that of 'home makers." Education in the true sense is knowing "how to do things," especially those things our statio in life demands of us, and with that end in view there has been added to the curriculum of this school a department of domestic science, which in addition to the usual things taught—dress-making, cooking, etc.—a course in trained nursing will be added, teaching the practical things connected with the course, so that the young lady returning home will be qualified for 'serving rather than to be served;" teaching them that instead of the world owing them a living they owe the world a life.

The location of this school is all that can be conducive to education. Removed from all bustle and excitement of arriving and departing railroad cars, only seven miles from the Atlantic Coast Line, in a community noted for its moral and intellectual worth, a faculty that is up-to-date in every respect, and a board of trustees composed of Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, Messrs. B. F. Hall, J. O. Carr, of Wilmington; Joe A. Brown, of Chadbourn; S. P. Middleton, of Hallsville; S. B. Newton, Rose Hill; T. B. Pierce, of Warsaw, and Henry Farrior, of Kenansville.

With this board of trustees and the advantages of cheap board and tuition and all other attractions considered, there seems to be no reason why this school of modern ideas should not be completely filled and overflowing with pupils, who in after years will grace and adorn the homes of our beautiful Southland. DEMOCRATS TRIUMPH.

Passed Income Tax Bill in Senate—Mr. Simmons' Leadership.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 26.—Under the leadership of Senator Simmons, the Democrats of the Senate, with the aid of a part of the insurgents, routed the Republicans and passed the excise, or income tax bill. It was expected that a vote would be very close, but under the energetic action of Senator Simmons, the Democrats presented an absolutely solid front and the majority was larger than had been even hoped. Both on the wool bill and the excise measure, the Democrats did not lose a single man, something that has seldom happened in recent years. The management of the Tar Heel Senator is the subject of much commendation.

KITCHIN IN ANSON.

Governor Speaks at Masonic and Woodmen of World Picnic.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wadesboro, N. C., July 26.—At a Masonic and Woodmen picnic in the lower part of this county today, Governor Kitchin addressed about 1,200 people. He talked for a few minutes about the good of the fraternal orders, but soon launched forth into a discussion of Senator Simmons' record. His speech was not different from former speeches he has delivered during his campaign. He spoke for more than two hours and his friends are confident that he made votes for himself, though it is certain that he left many Simmons supporters among his hearers.

Says the platform of the New Jersey Progressive convention: "We will support no candidate for public office who is not an avowed supporters of Col. Roosevelt for President of the United States." That is the first boycott to be declared by the Third Terners.

According to the rules adopted by the State Executive Committee for holding the Senatorial primary, the candidates for the Legislature need not bother with this question at all. The matter of who shall be Senator will be settled by the vote of the entire State on the day of the general election, and not by county votes at all. If one candidate gets the majority of all the votes cast in the State at the first primary, he will be the nominee. If neither gets a majority the two highest will run again. In either case the matter will have been settled before the Legislature meets and the nominee of the primary will be elected by the Legislature. The primary stfles the matter.—Oxford Public Ledger.

Mr. Hannis Taylor contends that as our agreement with England contemplated a canal in foreign territory, the Hay-Pauncefote treaty is voidable now that we have acquired the Panama strip. Dr. Taylor is well versed in international law and his point may be a good one, but even so, why denounce the treaty? The only reason thus far given is that it would be highly agreeable to owners of American coastwise ships to use the canal free of tolls. This interest is already highly favored. It is in fact a monopoly. Remitting tolls in favor of these ships at Panama is an indirect way of giving them a subsidy. Congress has repeatedly refused to subsidize our ships in the foreign trade, for which there might be some excuse. Why subsidize ships that under our navigation laws now have a monopoly? In particular, why go to the trouble of violating or abrogating a treaty to do it?—New York World.

TRADE FOLLOWS TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES

Those who are interested in the development of the twin ports of Wilmington and Southport should not fail to read an intensely interesting and impressive editorial in the Manufacturers' Record, under date of July 25th. The subject is "Trade Follows Development of Transportation Facilities." The editorial refers especially to the new port of Texas City, which was scarcely known a few years ago. In fact, eight years ago that port had a commerce of only $1,000,000 (in 1904), whereas in 1912 the port's business reached the amazing record of $100,000,000.

Texas City is located on Galveston Bay, not so very far from the great port of Galveston, the world's greatest cotton port. Close readers of The Star will remember that some time ago this paper contained an account of a decision of the Inter-State Commerce Commission settling disputed traffic arrangements as they affected the interests of Galveston and Texas City. Discrimination was made in favor of Galveston but the young port made out a good case and the commission rendered a decision placing both ports on the same footing. So we see Galveston is already looking upon Texas City as a rival, and well it may, for a gain of $99,000,000 in commerce in eight years, or more than $12,000,000 a year, shows that there is something doing at Texas City.

What accounts for the marvelous development of that new port? The Manufacturers' Record gave the answer to it a few weeks ago in a story which told how more than $5,000,000 had been invested in providing the most elaborate warehousing, loading and unloading facilities for the handling of domestic and foreign commerce at Texas City. In an article a few weeks ago, a correspondent of the Manufacturers' Record pointed out that during the present year the value of exports through Texas City would be about $100,000,000. In an editorial last Wednesday, this is said with reference to that astonishing deveopment:

"During the crop year of 1909-10, 30,000 bales of cotton were handled at Texas City. The next year showed 300,000 bales, and this year the ngures will be in the neighborhood of 600,000 bales. This phenomenal development is an outcome of the work of far-seeing men who had the command of capital with which to back their judgment. With an expenditure of over $5,000,000, they constructed a warehouse system which for magnitude and completeness in every detail is a marvel; a concrete grain elevator of 500,000 bushels capacity, and wharves and docks supplied with the very latest electric handling equipment and other facilities for enabling that port to receive, to store, to distribute to the interior or to ship abroad merchandise of all kinds at the least possible cost of handling.

"As a continuation of the great improvements which have made possible the growth of this trade, the Manufacturers' Record is in receipt of a telegram from James Stewart & Co., contractors, of St. Louis, announcing that they are building for the Texas City Transportation Co., a new pier of creosoted piles and timbers, 500 feet wide by 920 feet long, and that upon this pier will be constructed a reinforced concrete, fireproof warehouse, 155 feet by 880 feet, two stories in height, and arranged for railroad track extending the full length in the second story, and also that the contract includes the construction of a cotton compress and a cotton warehouse, 100 feet by 2,000 feet. These new expenditures involve an outlay of about $750,000.

"In connection with this, we have a letter from the Texas City Terminal Co., operating in connection with the Texas City Transportation Co., reporting the proposed building of a dock 350 feet long for the accommodation of tank steamers handling crude petroleum. This will involve "18 clusters of marine treated creosoted piling for the steamers to rest against, while outside of this line of piling, on the inshore side, there will be a platform 350 feet long and 10 feet wide, resting on marine treated piling, this platform being intended for the accommodation of the pipe line used to carry the oil, while still further inshore there will be mooring clusters of piling properly arranged for the accommodation of the ships' lines. The water alongside of this dock will be dredged to the depth of 28 feet.'

"The comprehensive plan of docking and warehousing and terminal facilities of all kinds arranged at Texas City should stimulate every port in the South desiring to develop coastwise or foreign trade to a study of what Texas City has accomplished by the throughness and completeness of its terminal facilities. In these days great traffic cannot be developed without the creation of great facilities for handling it. It is all very well for Southern ports and Southern railroads to agitate in favor of the development of coastwise and foreign trade through these ports, but this trade will not be developed, except to a limited extent, unless the facilities are provided for handling it at the lowest cost. Texas City has shown how it can be done."

The above article is right along the line upon which The Star has been hammering for three years. It is a concrete and powerful demonstration of what can be accomplished by modern harbor terminals and improved transportation facilities. The striking truth is that on an investment (not an expenditure) of $5,000,000, Texas City is doing an annual business of twenty times that amount. The lack of such facilities easily accounts for the fact that the South is not getting the full benefit of the possibilities which lie in its 3,000 miles of ocean and gulf coasts. What an immense commerce our Southern ports could do if they would only get ready for it like Texas City!

THE FREE LIST QUESTION AGAIN.

Honest tariff revisionists are different from tariff visionists, for they are beginning to find out that the test of Democracy does not consist in adhering to the free list idea in framing a tariff bill. It is merely a matter of policy in one particular and financing in the other, and it is a matter about which Democrats may differ without at all affecting their loyalty to Democracy. There is nothing fundamental in the free list proposition, as we have often contended, and both time and recent attempts at tariff making have clearly demonstrated that the admission of certain imposts into this country free of duty is merely a matter of business and policy. For instance, to place manufactures on the free list might be clearly in the interest of the masses, while permitting other imports to come in tax free would be as clearly in the interest of privilege and monopoly. Therefore, the "free list" test is no criterion by which any man's party loyalty may be judged.

Already we find good Democrats differing about putting sugar on the free list. The Democratic House, some time ago, passed a bill putting sugar on the free list, but Senate Democrats have differed with them as to that policy, (not principle), as witness the caucus of Senate Democrats on that question yesterday in Washington. Sugar is a necessity to the rich and the poor and the House Democrats put it on the free list for the purpose of giving relief to consumers. It turns out, however, that the Sugar Trust would be the beneficiary of free sugar, as it would get its raw sugar free of duty and would not have to pay any revenue to the government. It would no longer be necessary for the trust to swindle the government by false weights when shipments of imported raw sugar are received, and admitted free of even a revenue tariff. Thus it is seen that there are two sides to the free list question—one side good for the people and one side good for the interests. We have several times spoken along this line, and in the same conection the Manufacturers' Record, of July 25th, says:

"If certain big American interests which, by claiming that the tariff is responsible for the high price of sugar, are attempting to bring pressure upon Congress for the abolition of the duties on sugar, should guarantee to American consumers that upon the abolition of the duties they would sell sugar more cheaply, they might make some impression upon the intelligence of the American public. But the American public, in increasing numbers, is beginning to perceive that reduction or abolition of tariff duties does not mean reduction in the price of goods. In the past 10 or 15 years a situation has been developed in which the policy of free 'raw' materials is a sure means of strengthening the position of certain great interests in the American market. That policy is a step toward the elimination of surviving independents in manufacturing and mining and in other lines of production that are really independent."

Not only the Democrats, but the Republicans, resort to the free list as a matter of policy. President Taft gave us a good illustration of it when he negotiated his reciprocity treaty with Canada. The Democrats supported it under the impression that it was good for consumers, but they failed to discover that the Republicans favored it because it put lumber on the free list for the benefit of one of the lumber syndicates, wheat on the free list for the milling trust, cattle on the hoof for the benefit of the meat trust, while everything exchanged free between Canada and the United States would make business for the Hill lines, which would have been the principal beneficiary of reciprocity. There was Republican design in reciprocity, but the Democrats did not see it in time. Even now, some Democrats are being blamed for voting against reciprocity when it was not even a Democratic measure and in no particular represented the Democratic principle of a tariff for revenue nor comported with the Democratic commercial scheme.

We mention this double-barrelled feature of the free list so Democrats won't accuse each other of party disloyalty for voting for or against free list measures and reciprocity. Party principle is not involved. It is a matter of policy and judgment, most often poor policy and bad judgment.

WHY WILSON WINS.

The New York Times a few days ago contained an exhaustive and powerful article on "Why Woodrow Wilson Wins." Anyone who reads it will be compelled to realize that the Democracy has nominated for President the biggest man who has come into the public eye in a quarter of a century. Quoting from his speeches and analyzing his achievements, The Times gives us a clear insight into the causes which have brought Wilson into National view.

The Baltimore Sun thinks The Times article "throws an illuminating light upon a career which, in its way, is one of the most remarkable in American history." That is quite true. It shows how a man who was almost unknown in the world of politics two years ago, with no practical experience in public affairs, has suddenly come up, as the Sun states it, "like the lean and ill favored kine which Pharaoh saw in his dream, and swallowed up all his rivals, big and little, in this field."

The truth is, Wilson was just a big man held in reserve for just such a crisis in the Nation as this. He was in intellectual training for it, and he is now ripe for the great task. He will be elected and be the greatest President the country has ever had. He will bring order out of the chaos wrought by two Republican candidates for President.

MAKING FOR BETTER CONDITIONS

What, with the awakening of a healthy public sentiment, may be accomplished in a community with an active, thorough grand jury at work and with a brave and fearless judge on the bench, has been most strikingly demonstrated in Wilmington this week. Conditions, admittedly bad and in need of correction, have been remedied to a marked degree and we are told the end is not yet. The indifference of the best element in the community, during the past year and a half or more, has been remarked upon many times. "What's the use?" seemed to be the salve for an outraged public decency. But times have changed and influences have been set to work in the community during the past ten days that are making for better conditions, and, should they continue, will effect a speedy and certain cure for many evils with which the community has been beset.

It is a triumph for law and order, the measure of which will be determined by the persistency with which these influences are continued. It matters not what one may think of prohibition per se. It is no longer a question of prohibition, academic or otherwise. It is a question of the majesty of the law and we take it that all good citizens are for the maintenance of the law at whatever cost. No one can gainsay that conditions needed a speedy remedy. This remedy seems to be in the process of application. Judge Carter, the grand jury and the forces of law and order seem for once in the saddle. May they make the ride to certain victory!

CURRENT COMMENT.

Even the proprietor of the blind tiger will promise to be good when he finds that he is up against it.—Durham Herald.

The provocation of war is through mighty foolish means. Because of a speech in the English House of Commons the Germans are going right ahead in a fuller naval programme, apparently to gratify the fears of the Englishmen.—Greensboro News.

Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, representative of Congress from this district, was among the one hundred congressmen piloted to Seagirt the other day to call on Governor Wilson. In giving an account of the visit, the New York World said: "Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, of Greensboro, N. C., who represents the Fifth North Carolina district in Congress, was perhaps the most distinguished looking of all the statesmen who came here today. He was an officer in the first and the last battles of the Civil War. Major Stedman, who is 70 years old, told Governor Wilson that North Carolina will roll up the largest Democratic majority that has been given in a quarter of a century." Major Stedman knows what he is talking about. But speaking about his deportment and bearing, a lady from this State, in Washington on one occasion, went to see him at the capitol. A lady from Washington accompanied her. After she had met Major Stedman she told her North Carolina friend she was so charmed with him that she felt like hugging him. The major was not around at that time or she might have been permitted to try the stunt and for all we know she would not have been interferred with.—Greensboro Record.

WAKE UP, MR. GOOD CITIZEN!

You are asleep. You don't know it. But Good Government League knows it. It knows that if you were not asleep, you would not have allowed crime and graft to fasten themselves upon your good city as they have. For months the League has had skilled detectives at work. And it knows a good deal more than it knew four months ago. It knows enough to startle even so indifferent and good natured a person as you, Mr. Good Citizen. And if you will follow the proceedings of the present Superior Court, presided over by its fearless judge, you, too, will learn a part of what the League knows. The issue is deeper than you have been thinking. It is not between Prohibition and Anti-prohibition? That is clean out of sight though the lawless strive to keep it before you.

The issue is between Law and Anarchy. Which shall rule Wilmington?

The deliberate purpose not to enforce one law has led to the inability to enforce any law.

Every month has had it's murder. And you can't punish the murderer here. Life is cheap. Property is insecure.

As Judge Carter so fully pointed out in his charge, this place has become the dumping ground for the criminals of two States. A detective from a Northern State who was here in connection with one of our elections, told us that we had more crooks here, in proportion to our population, than any city he had visited. Because the town is reputed to be wide open, the tipplers flock here. Because gambling joints are here, gamblers flock here to fleece the unwary. Because houses of ill-fame are tolerated, and such places ever go with blind tigers and gambling joints, these houses have vastly multiplied. And the infamous trio, the liquor den, the gambling joint and the brothel that are the sources of all organized graft in our cities are here.

Now are you, Good Citizens, going to stand for this condition of things?

Are you good citizens going to let the opposition to prohibition that some of you feel, lead you to line up in support of such lawlessness?

Are you going to let fear of loss of business lead you to be silent under such conditions? The time has come for men to take a stand. You ought to come out squarely for or against this vice and crime. And the Good Government League hereby calls upon the good citizens of Wilmington to come out boldly for law and order in this crisis.

Now in this lining up for law, of course our officials, who have sworn to support the law and do their duty, will take their stand against lawlessness. Through our detectives and in other ways a vast deal of information has come to the League. It is the duty of the officials to tell all that they know that will aid in the enforcement of law. We have a splendid, fearless grand jury in session right now.

The Good Government League hereby publicly invites His Honor, the judge of the Recorder's court to go without further invitation before the grand jury and give such facts as he may know to the jury.

It cordially invites the High Sheriff of the county to go before the grand jury and give the information he possesses to the jury.

It suggests that certain of the magistrates might throw a flood of light on the situation.

And any other officials who have facts might find this the proper time to put those facts where they would do the most good.

The above named gentlemen will realize the reasonableness of these requests and should not need further urging to comply with our modest request.

The League does not wish to be impolite, but where such valuable information is in the hands of officials, it does not think its request unreasonable.

TURN ON THE LIGHT!
GOOD GOVERNMENT LEAGUE.

AUTO TURNED TURTLE.

Mr. J. W. Stewart, Wife and Daughter, of Newbern, Injured.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., July 26.—While en route home from Clark's Station late last night an automobile owned and driven by Mr. J. W. Stewart, of this city, skidded, turned turtle, pinning Mr. Stewart, his wife and daughter, Miss Sarah, and Mrs. William Hill, who were with him, beneath the machine. Miss Stewart was thrown clear of the car and was badly bruised and shaken up. However, she had the presence of mind to make an attempt to release those pinned beneath the machine and finally succeeded in doing so. When taken out Mr. Stewart was unconscious, while his wife and Mrs. Hill were badly injured. Miss Stewart walked back to Clark's, a distance of more than a mile, and telephoned here for aid. A physician went immediately to the scene and brought the injured persons here, placing them in a hospital. A telephone message from there this afternoon stated that all were resting as well as could be expected. The machine is badly damaged. It was turned completely over. The occupants escaped death or permanent injury in a miraculous manner.

FOY GETS 16-YEAR SENTENCE

Negro Found Guilty of Manslaughter. Five Years for Highway Robbery—More Capiases Issued. Today.

"Guilty of manslaughter," was the verdict returned yesterday against Gayhard Foy, colored, who killed Willie Gause, another negro, early in the year by stamping him in the stomach, and Judge Carter later in the day sentenced the negro to 16 years at hard labor in the State prison at Raleigh. The jury was not out more than an hour. The Foy case was the most important of the several disposed of in Superior Court yesterday, though Emanuel Pierce, colored, was sentenced to five years on the county roads for highway robbery.

This morning the so-called "nolo contendere" cases, against a number of men who submitted pleas of nolo contendere to charges of violating the prohibition law at the January term of Superior Court, and upon whom prayer for judgment was continued upon their furnishing bonds to appear at this term of court to show that they have not since engaged in the illicit sale of whiskey, will be called and it is likely that they will occupy the attention of the court for the entire day. Solicitor Shaw has not made any arrangements to take up the trial of any cases today, and the Fannie Hefner murder trial has been set for Monday. The burglary case against James H. Beatty, colored, is tentatively set for Tuesday. Judge Carter yesterday ordered that the Hefner woman be released from jail if she could provide bond of $1,000, as the solicitor has stated that he will not contend for a first degree verdict.

The evidence in the Foy case had been completed at the Thursday session and when court reconvened yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., counsel for the defendant, made his plea for his client, Mr. Bellamy put a strong argument in defense of Foy, contending that the deceased had made threats against his life. He also pointed out that the assault by Foy on Gause was made on the moment and was not premeditated, and that Gause had not died immediately, but some ten days afterwards. The attorney declared that there was ground for doubt that the negro's death was really due to injuries inflicted by Foy, as one witness had testified that the deceased had often suffered from stomach trouble.

Solicitor Shaw, for the State, made a short but strong speech, stressing the point of the extreme brutality of Foy's assault on the deceased and urging for a verdict of murder in the second degree.

Judge Carter then made a clear and comprehensive charge to the jury, defining murder in the second degree and manslaughter, and directing the jury as to what lines to pursue their deliberations along. The case went to the jury about 11:45 and the verdict was returned about 1 o'clock.

Judge Carter did not pronounce sentence upon Foy at the time the verdict was returned, as there were several other matters before the court.

Just before court took a recess last evening he gave Mr. Bellamy an opportunity to make a short plea for mercy for his prisoner, which he heard attentively. In explaining his views of the case Judge Carter spoke of the extreme brutality and savagery of Foy's assault on Gause, declaring that he felt that to kill a man by stamping him in the stomach with a heavy paid of shoes seemed to him to really more brutal than to kill him with a knife or gun. He stated that he thought perhaps the jury in returning the verdict had really made it as light as possible on account of the brilliant fight put up by Mr. Bellamy for his client. The judge declared that he thought Foy was a bad man and a dangerous citizen, and that he felt that for his own good and the safety of society he needed to be given a severe lesson. The case, he said, seemed to him to be one worthy of almost the maximum sentence of 20 years for manslaughter, and that he did not feel justified in taking off more than 20 per cent. of the maximum sentence. He therefore sentenced Foy to 16 years at hard labor in the State penitentiary.

Probably the heaviest sentence imposed in New Hanover county for highway robbery for the last few years was meted out to Emanuel Pierce yesterday morning following the return of a verdict of guilty by the jury after having been out for only a short time. The charge against Pierce was to the effect that he held up A. W. Smith, a crippled fish dealer, and secured about $10 from him in the Fall of 1910. Pierce was only arrested a few months ago. Smith positively identified him as the man who had robbed him.

After the jury had returned the verdict Judge Carter questioned the negro enough to learn that he had served several terms on the county roads heretofore. He then stated that he felt it his duty to impose a sentence that would teach the negro a lesson, or at least, put him where he would do no more harm for awhile, and he accordingly named five years as the time that Pierce shall serve.

Zora Ennett, white, on an appeal from the Recorder's court, was found guilty of an assault and battery and judgment was suspended on payment of the costs. On a charge of allowing stock to run at large he was found not guilty, but a verdict of guilty was returned as to releasing impounded stock. Judgment was suspended in this case.

The remainder of the time of yesterday's session was taken up with the arguments on a motion to quash the indictments against Geo. W. Britt, W. J. Bradshaw and C. H. Batson, charged with nuisance in owning or acting as agents for owners of houses rented for immoral purposes and occupied by alleged women of ill repute, on the grounds that the solicitor went before the grand jury and advised that body to return true bills against the defendants. The motions were made by Kellum & Loughlin for Bradshaw and Batson and Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy for Britt.

Several witnesses, including Mr. T. L. Morton, foreman of the grand jury, which returned the indictments, and Mr. C. Van Leuven, another member of the same grand jury, were examined in regard to the matter. They both testified that the solicitor had been called before the grand jury several times at that term to give the body information as to laws or advice on legal questions, as the presiding judge had instructed them to call on that official in case they needed advice. Neither recalled asking the solicitor's advice on the indictments in question, though Mr. Morton testified that it is possible that he might have been asked a hypothetical question in order to bring out the information desired, which, if he remembered aright, was whether the owner or agent of a house rented for immoral purposes could be punished.

The arguments on the matter were not completed yesterday afternoon, and they will be taken up whenever the court has an opportunity to hear them. Solicitor Shaw laughingly disclaimed having advised the grand jury other than to the laws relating to hypothetical questions of the kind in general.

Mr. Chas. Terry, a clerk for the Seaboard Air Line Railroad here, was adjudged in contempt of court and fined $20 and costs for refusing to answer a question asked him by the grand jury. He was also placed under $300 bond for his appearance before the grand jury as a witness from day to day. It was said that Mr. Terry was asked as to whether a certain person, said to be Mr. Walter Boesch, had received shipments of beer or whiskey over the Seaboard Air Line here, and that he replied that he was not the clerk that had that matter in charge and could not answer the question. The matter was reported to Judge Carter and he had Mr. Terry brought before him and fined him as stated above.

Judge Carter yesterday afternoon excused the jurors who have served the past week for the term, and in doing so he complimented them very highly on the way in which they have performed their duties. He stated that before coming to Wilmington he had heard that New Hanover juries did not always do their full duty, but that if such was the case nothing of the kind had occurred at this term of court. He declared that he heartily agreed with the juries in every verdict returned during the past week, and he thanked the jurors very warmly for their good work, assuring them that it had been a pleasure to be associated with them in the administration of the court's affairs. He ordered that the jury that had served in the Gerhardt Foy case be given an extra day's pay, as they had been held over night.

More Indictments Returned.

The grand jury returned another batch of indictments charging violations of the prohibition law yesterday morning and yet another last evening. Those named in the indictments returned yesterday are: Henry Russ, two cases; Jno. Poole, Ed Connor, J. R. Bolton, J. W. Stokley, Jack Walton, two cases; James Everett, J. E. Ennett, three cases; Ira J. Scott, Sam Farrow, Willie Zellers, John Turner, Ben Horne, Loftin Garrison, Geo. Capps, Jacob Haas.

The deputy sheriffs continued their search for the newly indicted defendants and the nolo contendere defendants yesterday, meeting with indifferent success, as many of the men could not be located.

Those arrested are Jack Walton, J. O. Grimes, M. Von Oesen, J. B. Elkins, D. N. Stanley, J. C. Vereen, J. H. Ottoway, H. H. Woebse, J. H. Woebse, M. L. Starkey and J. E. Ennett.

All the above furnished bond with the exception of J. E. Ennett, who was arrested last evening, and who went to jail. There are three indictments against him. Of the 40-odd defendants who have been arrested on capiases charging violations of the prohibition law since Thursday morning only three remain in jail. They are Tom Croom, Fox Riley and J. E. Ennett. Mattie Allen, who went to jail in default of bond Thursday evening, succeeded in raising the $1,000 required yesterday morning and was released.

A large number of the women of the underworld were summoned before the grand jury yesterday. While it is not known for what purpose, the general idea prevalent around the Court House was that they were wanted to testify as to who are the owners of the houses occupied by them. It is rumored that indictments will be brought against a number of people, charging them with nuisance in renting houses to the women of ill repute.

Today will likely be a busy day in court, when the nolo contendere cases are called this morning. There is some speculation as to whether all of those indicted at the January term of court will be on hand or not, as there seems to be some doubt as to whether the bonds given by them require their personal appearance in the court room. It was for this reason that Judge Carter issued the capiases for all of the nolo contendere defendants Thursday morning, and those who have been apprehended have been placed under an additional bond of $1,000 each to require their appearance.

However, a number have not been located and some of them are said to have left the city. The order of the court at the January term was to the effect that bond be given for appearance at the Spring term of 1913 to show that the defendants have been on good behavior and have not engaged in the sale of liquor. The motion of the solicitor's prayer for judgment was continued on the defendants entering into bond to show cause that they have not engaged in the whiskey traffic.

It is said that there is evidence that a number of the nolo contendere defendants have violated the terms of their agreement and that more sensations will develop in court today.

The cases against the newly indicted defendants will hardly be called today, it is thought. However, it is understood that the solicitor expects to take them up next week.

AFFIDAVITS FOR REMOVAL

Solicitor Shaw and Chairman McEachern File Papers Urging Transfer of Holly Murder Case to Another County

Solicitor Henry E. Shaw and Mr. D. McEachern, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, yesterday filed affidavits in the Superior Court asking that the State be allowed to remove the case against J. C. Holly, white, charged with the murder by poisoning of his ward, Edward Cromwell, to another county for trial, on the ground that there is little prospect of reaching the case at the present or the next term of criminal court, and that it would be almost an impossibility to secure a jury composed of men who have not already made up their minds, owing to the publicity the case has received.

Holly has been twice tried on the charge, having been found guilty of murder in the first degree at the first trial. He was granted a new trial by the Supreme Court and at the April term of court the case resulted in a mistrial, after the jury had been out for several days and nights. Holly is charged with giving Cromwell poison and then setting fire to the Rock Springs Hotel, of which he was proprietor, in order to conceal all trace of the fire. The motive ascribed is that he wanted to get the insurance on the boy's life, having been made beneficiary of the lad's policy only a short time before the death of Cromwell.

Copies of the affidavits filed have been furnished Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., and C. D. Weeks, Esq., counsel for the defendant, and they will file their answer probably this morning. If the matter can be reached the argument on the motion for removal will probably take place this morning.

The affidavits filed for yesterday are as follows:

Solicitor Shaw's Affidavit

State of North Carolina, County of New Hanover, in Superior Court, July Term.

Affidavit of Removal. State of North Carolina vs. J. C. Holly.

H. E. Shaw, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is informed and verily believes that there are probable grounds to form a belief that the State of North Carolina cannot obtain a fair and impartial trial of the above entitled criminal action, now on criminal docket for the trial in New Hanover county, and sets the grounds of his belief as follows:

"That the above entitled criminal action has been twice tried in New Hanover county; that each trial required about four hundred jurors to be passed upon before a jury could be selected; that the majority of the jurors subpoenaed had formed and expressed an opinion that prohibited them from qualifying as impartial jurors; that the two trials have been reported in detail by both of the local papers to such an extent that the majority, if not all, of the population of New Hanover county have formed opinions that would disqualify them from serving as jurors in said case, and that since the last trial of the above entitled case both of the local papers have published said case, more or less in detail, thereby keeping said case fresh in the minds of the public.

"Wherefore, affiant avers and verily believes that the State of North Carolina cannot obtain a fair and impartial jury in New Hanover county.

"Your affiant further avers that as another ground for removal of the above entitled criminal action is that the ends of justice will thereby be promoted by a change of venue, and sets forth his ground of belief as follows:

"That the length of time required in the trial of said case has heretofore been one week, and that it is reasonable to believe that the third trial will consume several additional days; that it will be impossible to try said case at this term of the court; that the only term of criminal court in the Fifth district before the January term is a one-week term in September; that it will be impossible to hold a special term of court before said January term in the Fifth district as the presiding judge will be engaged in holding court at other places in said district every week until the January term; that the one-week term of court in September will not continue for a sufficient length of time to try said case; that the criminal docket in New Hanover county is overcrowded; that the above entitled case has been on said docket for two years; and unless removed will be forced to so remain for at least six months longer.

"Wherefore, your affiant prays that, upon the grounds hereinbefore set forth, the case of State vs. J. C. Holly be removed to some other county in the district, or to some adjoining county.

"H. E. SHAW."

Sworn and subscribed to before me, this July 26th, 1912.

W. N. HARRISS, C. S. C.

Chairman McEachern's Affidavit

State of North Carolina, County of New Hanover.

D. McEachern, being duly sworn, says: "That he is chairman of the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover county; that in his opinion the ends of justice will be better met by moving the case of State vs. J. C. Holly, now pending in the Superior Court of New Hanover county, for the murder of Edward Cromwell, to another county as the same has been pending in this county for several years, has been tried twice and the evidence at each trial fully set out in full in the daily newspapers published in the city of Wilmington, N. C., and that the community in general are very familiar with evidence in the case; that at each trial of said case, it has been necessary to summon several hundred jurors and on account of so many of them having formed and expressed an opinion as to the guilt in most cases of the defendant, it has been extremely hard to get a jury and in the opinion of your affiant, it would not be possible to secure a jury in New Hanover county to agree upon a verdict in said case; that the said case has entailed up to this time much expense to the county of New Hanover and if another trial was had in said county a much greater expense would be entailed, without a jury agreeing upon a verdict; that in the opinion of your affiant, a verdict could be reached in another county where the residents are not so familiar with the facts in the case, and certainly not a greater expense than in the county of New Hanover as it would be easier to obtain a jury in a county where the jurors were not familiar with the facts of the case, that although the expense of carrying witnesses and prisoner to another county would entail a great expense, still, in the opinion of your affiant, this would be off-set by the probability of a verdict, which in the county of New Hanover your affiant does not think would be at all probable."

MAIL ON THE W., B. & S.

New Service to Southport Will Be Inaugurated August 1st

The following from this week's issue of the Southport News will be read with interest here:

"On August 1st, the W., B. & S. Railroad enters into a contract with the government to carry the mails to and from Wilmington.

"For the present at least, the mail will come down on the evening train; while it delays the receipt of mails here, Southport will get all mails. Nothing will be held over; then, too, one has overnight in which to answer.

"In the matter of the delivery of the News, the star route will be the same. Town Creek, Bolivia and other towns along the railroad will get their News earlier; Wilmington, Friday morning! northern and eastern mails, although not leaving until Friday morning, will probably arrive as quickly because it is expected they will catch the northern train and go right through.

"Although it is going to be better for Southport, and later it is expected that Southport will have two mails a day. The new engine has arrived at Navassa and is expected to be shortly in commission.

"During the past few days Capt. Hunter Smith and several other officers of the First Company, Coast Artillery, have been busily engaged in getting everything in readiness for the annual encampment next month at Fort Caswell. The company will leave Newbern on August 5th and will return on the 16th of the month.

"The encampment will be a joint one, companies from Newbern, Greensboro, Salisbury, Charlotte, Wilmington and Henderson being in camp at the same time."

WEATHER YESTERDAY

Yesterday Another Extremely Hot, Humid Day—Temperatures

Yesterday was another excessively warm day—ideal for the beach and growing crops, but, decidedly oppressive for mankind. The record of the Weather Bureau shows for the 24 hours ended last night a maximum of 92 degrees, or one degree above the previous day. The mean temperature for the day, however, was one dgree less than the day before.

The Cotton Region Bulletin, issued at 11 o'clock yesterday morning says that "warm weather prevails in all portions of the cotton belt and maximum temperatures of 100 and over occurred yesterday in the Oklahoma and Little Rock districts. Local rains have fallen in the Wilmington, Charleston, Atlanta, Montgomery, Mobile, Memphis and Little Rock districts." PAPER CHANGES HANDS.

The Bladen Journal Purchased by the State Press Union Service.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Bladen Journal, established a few years ago by Rev. W. M. Shaw, of this city, had been sold by him to the State Press Union Service, of Wilmington, a corporation chartered a few months ago to own and publish newspapers, furnish ready print service, etc. The new management, it was said last night, takes charge of the paper immediately. The Bladen Journal is a good paper and is published in a live and hustling town. With its fine equipment and unsurpassed facilities for printing country weeklies, the paper will doubtless be made even better under the new management. Mr. Geo. W. Potts, a newspaper man and printer of wide experience, who has been foreman of the Wilmington Printing & Stamp Works for the past few months, has been named as editor and manager of The Journal and will take up his new duties next Monday.

The Recorder's Court

The sobering effect of Superior Court is reflected in the dwindling number of cases in the Recorder's court each morning now, there being only three cases yesterday. Chas. Murphy, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and taxed $5 and costs. Judgment was suspended on James Hicks, colored, charged with violating the driving ordinance, on payment of the costs. A nol pros was taken in the case against Decker Gayman, colored, who was arrested here a few days ago on a charge of vagrancy and who was taken back to Summerton, S. C., where he was wanted on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, by a deputy sheriff from the place Thursday.

HER SISTER A VICTIM

Mrs. M. M. Caldwell Suffers Bereavement In Drowning in Floods

Friends of Mrs. Morris M. Caldwell, wife of Dr. M. M. Caldwell, will tenderly sympathize with her in the drowning of her sister, Miss Alma Hayes, which occurred on Wednesday in the fearful floods which have been sweeping Pennsylvania. The Associated Press dispatches have told the story of the fearful havoc wrought by the rushing waters and on yesterday Mrs. Caldwell received a telegram from her father stating that her sister was one of the victims in the flooded district near Jeannette, Pa. As wire communication is practically destroyed in the flooded region the telegram gave only the briefest information of the drowning and recovery of the body. Miss Bessie Hayes, another sister of Mrs. Caldwell, has been visiting her in Wilmington for several weeks and she, too, was prostrated with grief at the news from her father. Mrs. Caldwell will not be able to go to Pennsylvania for the funeral, but Dr. Caldwell and Miss Bessie Hayes leave on the Seaboard train this morning to be with the family in their deep affliction.

The loss of the roofing tar was the only damage, the prompt work of the firemen preventing what might have been a big fire.

SENATOR'S ALOES PILLS.

Stephenson, Who is 83, Prescribes His Favorite Remedy.

(From the Washington Post.)

"Uncle Ike" Stephenson, the oldest of Senators and who carries his 83 years without a cane and boasts of his ability to eat three square meals a day, said at the White House recently he was thinking of giving up his toga and becoming a physician.

"What's good for a horse is good for a man," said the Senator to a group which gathered to hear his homely logic. "When a horse is sick, a veterinarian gives him a pill with aloes in it and he soon gets well. For 39 years I have been taking a pill with aloes in it once a day, and I have never suffered from indigestion.

"Some time ago I told T. W. Brahany, President Taft's new assistant secretary, about the pills and how snuff was good for deafness. He wrote it up for a newspaper, and since then I have been getting more than 20 letters a day asking for advice in cases of deafness and indigestion. I think I'll have to become a doctor."

Was Found Dead in Bed.

Mrs. Mary E. Keathley was called to Norfolk, Va., last Sunday to attend the funeral of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Theo. H. He arrived in time to attend the funeral Tuesday. Mrs. Keathley was 34 years old. The grief-stricken husband is a brother of Mr. Ed. Keathley, of Wilmington, and Mrs. Luther Y. Styne, who lives on the Federal Point road. Friends will tenderly sympathize with the bereaved.

C., were married Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mowbray. Rev. George S. Allen, pastor of Vienna Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated."

COLOR LINE DRAWN.

Mississippi Progressives in a Pretty Pickle—Convention Called.

Jackson, Miss., July 25.—Once called and then recalled, a State convention of Mississippi Roosevelt Republicans was ordered for the second time today by a faction of the colonel's followers who do not propose to be halted in their course by the notification, as Dr. S. L. Redmond, a negro politician of this city, puts it, that "no negroes need apply."

Redmond and other negroes formulated the call today and sent it out over the State. He says no color line will be drawn. Redmond asserts he is National committeeman of the Progressive party for Mississippi and was chosen at the Chicago meeting. B. F. Fridge, of Ellsville, who claims he has been commissioned by Senator Dixon to call a convention of Progressives in Mississippi and a few days ago issued the call for a convention July 31st at Jackson to white voters only.

FLOODS IN WISCONSIN

Property Damage Large and People Are Homeless

Milwaukee, Wis., July 25.—Additional reports today from the flooded districts of Northern Wisconsin bear out the report of great damage done by the torrent which swept down the Wisconsin river and its tributaries from North of Wausau early Wednesday, when the Brokaw and other dams gave way.

The flood reached Merrill today, driving many people from their homes, flooding business houses and doing damage estimated at $200,000.

The conditions at Wausau are becoming normal again but the damage in that vicinity is conservatively estimated half a million dollars.

Why is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth but do dissolve in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic The Standard for 20 years. 50.

TO WAR ON ARMY WORM.

House Sets Aside Money to Fight It in Cotton States.

Washington, July 25.—The chestnut blight, which has caused the loss of millions of dollars within a few years in the New England and Middle States, which has done considerable damage in Western Maryland and is expected to spread into West Virginia, Virginia and North Carolina, if the pest is not checked, was brought into the discussion in the House today on a resolution appropriating an emergency fund of $5,000 to enable the experts of the Department of Agriculture to fight the army worm in the cotton producing States. This resolution was called up by Representative Heflin, of Alabama.

Representative Moore, of Pennsylvania, wanted to know if the army worm was operating only in the Alabama member's district or was the damage confined to Alabama alone.

Mr. Heflin, Representative Hobson and others assured him that the army worm was getting in its work not only in Alabama but in most of the cotton States, and Secretary Wilson yesterday had informed the House Committee on Agriculture that his experts could get along with the small amount asked for until the regular annual appropriations are available. Mr. Moore was disposed to object because no special amount was, so far as he knew, set aside for arresting the chestnut blight. He was assured, however, that in the agricultural bill there was an allowance of $8,000 extra for that purpose, and he then withdrew his objection and the Heflin resolution was adopted.

ATTACKS GOV. WILSON.

Republican Makes Political Speech in House, Praising Taft.

Washington, July 26.—Representative Rodenberg, Republican, of Illinois, made a political speech in the House today, attacking Governor Woodrow Wilson.

Mr. Rodenberg quoted long extracts from Governor Wilson's "History of the American People" in which the writer referred to Thomas Jefferson as "An aristocrat who deliberately practices the arts of a politician" and said that "Washington found him a guide who needed watching."

Governor Wilson's writings on the immigration question, Mr. Rodenberg reviewed at length. Mr. Rodenberg quoted Governor Wilson's praise of Chinese and declared that "there must have been rejoicing in every Chinese laundry in the United States" when the Governor was nominated at Baltimore.

Governor Wilson's views of William J. Bryan as expressed in the much-talked of "Joline letter", and his reference to Mr. Bryan's participation in the Democratic convention of 1896, Mr. Rodenberg reviewed at length.

Mr. Rodenberg concluded his speech with praise for President Taft.

"His administration needs no defense," said Mr. Rodenberg. "In him they recognize the dignity and the majesty of an honest man who has faithfully upheld the best traditions of the Republican party."

Mr. Rodenberg closed with the quotation: "We stand at Aramageddon and we battle for the Lord."

GRABOW LABOR RIOTS.

Seven True Bills Are Returned at Lake Charles, La.

Lake Charles, La., July 22.—The grand jury tonight in its report of the labor riot at Grabow, July 7th, between union and non-union lumber mill employes, returned seven true bills and eleven not true bils. Inasmuch as out of 31 arrests made, only six men have been freed, it is believed that some of the true bills include a number indicted jointly. John Galloway and Paul Galloway, officers of the lumber company, at whose plant the riot occurred, were among the prisoners discharged. A. L. Emerson, president of the union, is among those who will be held. Most of the arrests were made on the charge of murder and inciting to riot, but on what charges the indictments have been returned has not been made public.

Baton Rouge, La., July 24.—Contending that linen suits and similar wearing apparel, of both men and women, were ruined by the plush seats of railroad cars. Louis Ochs, representing the Traveling Men's Protective Association, argued yesterday before the State Railroad Commission that twenty railroads be compelled to have linen covers put upon all uphotstered car seats in the Summer months. The commission took the case under advisement.

LOEB REPORT LITTLE CREDITED

Treasury Men Do Not Believe He Will Resign to Help "T. R."

Washington, July 25.—Treasury Department officials are not inclined to say they believe the report that William Loeb, Jr., collector of customs at New York and former secretary to President Roosevelt, is about to resign his position to join Colonel Roosevelt's new party.

Reports of impending changes in the cabinet continue. Secretary Nagel is the latest mentioned. The secretary has told friends he would not serve after March should Mr. Taft be re-elected, and so has Attorney General Wickersham. This is believed to be the basis for the most recent report that they are to retire.

New York, July 25.—Reports that Collector Loeb intended to resign to join Colonel Roosevelt have been current for some time, but have been impossible of verification as Mr. Loeb is at present on a hunting trip in the mountains of Colorado.

COMPANIES ORDERED BACK.

Fearing Trouble in Coal Regions, the West Virginia Troops Go Home.

Mount Gretna, Pa., July 26.—A sensation was created in the United States Camp of Instruction at this place today when a few hours after their arrival three companies of the Second Regiment of the National Guard of West Virginia, on orders from Governor Glasscock, started back to the South, because of labor trouble in the coal fields at Paint Creek, in southwest West Virginia.

As soon as the order was received, a special train was made up and the troopers from Charleston, Bluefield and Fayetteville were entrained and rushed away.

It is reported here that the labor trouble in West Virginia is serious.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Miss Annie Quarles, who is spending the Summer at the Seashore Hotel, will go to Rocky Mount this morning to spend a few days with home folks.

Mr. Robt. R. Forrester, of Atlanta, arrived yesterday to join his mother, Mrs. George Forrester, who has been spending some time at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. L. C. Power, of Atlanta, and party went outside in the launch 'Suwannee" yesterday morning and caught over 200 large fish. The outing was greatly enjoyed by all in the party.

Dr. R. A. Hall, professor of chemistry at the University of North Carolina, and Mrs. Hall and little son, have returned to their home at Chapel Hill, after a month's stay at the Hanover Inn.

Yesterday's Raleigh News and Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. Charles Root left yesterday for Wrightsville Beach. ——Mr. and Mrs. Charles U. Harriss returned to the city yesterday from Wrightsville Beach, where they have been sojourning for som time."

Mr. Chas. B. Ryan, of Portsmouth, Va., general passenger agent, Fred Geisler, of Atlanta, assistant general passenger agent, and H. S. Leard, of Raleigh, division passenger agent, all of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, arrived yesterday to spend a few days at the Oceanic Hotel.

Mr. Henry Walters, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, has arrived at the beach to spend some days with his nephew, Mr. Lyman Delano. He has many friends at the beach and in Wilmington by whom he has been most pleasantly greeted.

Among last night's arrivals at The Oceanic Hotel were John C. Hyman, of the Seaboard Air Line; Joe Stone, Albany, N. Y.; T. E. Adams, Atlanta; M. S. Satterfield, Lynchburg, Va.; L. W. Pay, Sumter, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Grandy, Charlotte; H. G. Kubert, John H. MacLain, Atlanta.

Dr. Calvin H. Grainger, of Winston-Salem; Mr. J. J. Phoenix, of Greensboro; Dr. Watson, of Columbia, and one or two others, composed a party out from the Seashore Hotel, yesterday afternoon, in the launch Suanna, Capt. Wells. They caught a large string of fish, and had a most enjoyable outing.

Mrs. Brown and daughter, Miss Susie Brown, of Oxford; Misses Lucile and Katie Lee Hundly, of Durham, and Mrs. Wine and family, of Wilmington, are spending a few weeks at Mrs. Fountain's cottage. Misses Hundly were the guests yesterday afternoon at an automobile party given by Mr. John R. Hanby.

Next Monday night a children's souvenir dance will be given at Lumina. As usual on these occasions, the children will have the floor from 8 to 9 o'clock. The grand march will take place at 9 o'clock, and then the dance for grown people will begin. At the last children's dance there were probably 400 children in the grand march. Souvenir dances are very popular with the children.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Clayton Giles and Miss Lucile Murchison entertained their friends residing on Wrightsville Beach and the sound, at the Giles' old Summer home, Bradley's creek. The guests were cordially received by the hostesses, and an enjoyable afternoon spent. The rooms of the home were decorated for the occasion with lovely flowers, and the porches festooned with bamboo, giving a charming effect.

As announced in these columns the concert at Lumina tomorrow night will be the most elaborate ever given at Lumina, for, in addition to the singing of Mrs. Pearson, the orchestra will be increased to 18 pieces, the largest orchestra that has ever played at Lumina. All during the week this special orchestra has been rehearsing under the direction of Mr. Kneisel, who promises that the concert tomorrow night will be an unusually fine one.

Among yesterday's arrivals at the Hanover Inn were: J. W. Everett, Spartanburg, S. C.; Dr. W. W. Dawson, Grifton, N. C.; G. H. Dortch, Raleigh; Dr. J. R. Smith, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Cook, Cedartown, Ga.; Miss Ethel Gaitley and Miss Pansy Gaitley, Maxton; J. H. Daniel, Atlanta; W. A. Simpkins, Misses Hattie Simpkins and Pearl Sauls, Isaac Simpkins, Raleigh; J. I. Selman, Atlanta; Malcahm McKenzie, New York; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Arrant, Birmingham; L. Floyd, Spartanburg, S. C.

A party of young men stopping at the Northrop Cottage composed the most successful fishing trip of the season out from Wrightsville Beach yesterday morning in the launch Nellie May, Capt. Dennis. The young men caught 1,093 fish, of which 633 were trout and the remainder were croakers. They were out from 9:30 A. M. to 12:30 P. M., fishing about a mile off Wrightsville Beach. The fine catch attracted considerable attention at the resort. The party was composed of the following: Ralph Tanner, George Sciple, Carl Sciple, Atlanta; H. B. Ruffin, Wilson; Norman Kirkman, and two sons, Mayes and Billie Kirkman, Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. Lipe, Baltimore, and D. F. Keel, Wrightsville Beach. The largest individual catch was made by Mr. Keel, who caught 138 with Tanner as a close second, with 135.

Mrs. Frank Pearson will sing at both concerts at Lumina tomorrow, and if the size of the audience that her singing aetracted to Lumina last Sunday is a sample of what her audiences are to be, an unusually large attendance may be looked for tomorrow. The song that Mrs. Pearson has selected to sing at the afternoon concert tomorrow is that delightful old Moore ballad: "Oh, Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms." The average audience prefers the old-time ballads, and in the large musical centers prominent singers like Mrs. Pearson are meeting with great success in reviving the old-fashioned songs. The patrons of Lumina will be glad to know that Mrs. Pearson will sing several of these old balads during her Lumina engagement. Her song for the night concert will be: "When the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," another fine selection that Mrs. Pearson sings admirably.

The Seashore Hotel had among its arrivals yesterday the following: W. J. Rosenthal, Philadelphia; M. C. Thompson, Richmond; J. B. Cummings, Kinston; J. M. Proctor, Raleigh; J. C. Dawson, A. P. What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters gives her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

YOUNG WIFE SAVED FROM HOSPITAL

Tells How Sick She Was And What Saved Her From An Operation.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"Three years ago I was married and went to housekeeping. I was not feeling well and could hardly drag myself along. I had such tired feelings, my back ached, my sides ached, I had bladder trouble awfully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had headaches, too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so, when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done as you told me. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health.

"If sick and ailing women would only know enough to take your medicine, they would get relief."—Mrs. BENJ. H. STANSBERY, Route 6, Box 18, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, backache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too long, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound now.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy and should give every one confidence.

COTTON MARKET STILL HIGH

New High Records Again Made Yesterday—Offerings Were Absorbed on a Reaction—Local Condition Report.

New York, July 26.—New high records were established in the cotton market at the opening today and while heavy realizing sales were met around 12 3-4 cents for the new crop months, offerings were absorbed on a reaction of about 10 points and the close was steady at a net advance of from 1 to 7 points for the day.

The market opened firm at an advance of 3 to 11 points on higher cables, apprehensions of drought damage in the Southwest, and continued talk of a bullish government condition report next week. The advance to 12.76 for October and 12.77 for December attracted heavy realizing which was accompanied by rumors that some of the big Eastern belt bulls were taking profits for over the August bureau, and prices turned easier shortly after the call. The Western belt forecasts for continued clear weather inspired a recovery to about the opening figures during the middle of the morning, but offerings increased on the bulge with the market again turning easy and selling off to about the closing figures of last night during the early afternoon. A local condition report making the average 81.7 against 83.9 this indicating a deterioration of only a little over 2 per cent., no doubt inspired in part of the offerings but the market became much steadier toward the close, and last prices showed a rally of 7 or 8 points from the lowest. July was relatively quiet, and easy all day and closed only a point above the final figures of yesterday while later months were from 6 or 7 points net higher.

Receipts at the ports today 2,879 bales against 2,699 last week, and 2,035 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 291 against 578 last year; at Houston 137 against 442 last year, a at Galveston 766 against 1,174 la year.

New York, July 26.—Spot cotton closed very steady; middling uplands, 13c.; do. gulf, 13.25; sales, 120 bales.

Cotton futures closed steady.

THE WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Developments of a Bullish Nature—Rain Needed in Southwest—Reports of Weevils and Other Pests

New York, July 26.—The developments during the week have been in the main of a bullish character and cotton prices have advanced to the accompaniment of an increase in speculation. Foremost as a factor in the rise has been the persistent lack of moisture in the Southwest where only a light precipitation has fallen at a few scattered points and where a copious rainfall is undoubtedly needed.

At least that is the belief of many in the trade and they have acted on that belief. They have backed their opinion with purchases. Temperatures have been reported in Oklahoma of 100 to 105 degrees at times, while in Texas there have been maximum temperatures of 100 to 102 degrees. Complaints of damage from hot winds have been numerous. Moreover, weevil and other pests are declared to be damaging the crop in those States. From Arkansas too, complaints have increased of damage of army worms and boll worms as well as from weevils. From parts of the Eastern belt, notably Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia reports have been numerous to the effect that army worms are causing serious injury to the plant. Such reports may be exaggerated, as some contend, but their effect has been seen in an influx of buying orders from the outside public. Reports of shedding have been received from the Eastern belt where a backward crop is reported. That the crop is late is shown by the backwardness of the movement of new cotton in Texas. Spot sales in Liverpool have been liberal, amounting to 10,000 bales a day, as a rule. Futures there have advanced. Here there has been active buying of spot interests, the South, Wall Street, Liverpool and local operators and commission houses, while there has been active covering of shorts. On the other hand the crop situation east of the Mississippi river is better. Certainly many reports to that effect have been received recently. Clear conditions have ruled over most of the area. Liverpool advices have intimated that there is the probability of a lockout of card room workers in Lancashire in the not distant future. Some have been inclined to combat the advance believing that everything bullish in the situation has been discounted. Realizing has been heavy for account of Southern Western, Wall Street and local longs. The offerings have been readily absorbed, however.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW

Business Quite Up to Normal—Good Crop Prospects

New York, July 26.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Statistics of trade movement tell of a volume of business quite up to normal. That industrial lines are well employed is indicated by the advances in products of iron and steel and by the better demand and higher prices this week for copper.

Generally excellent crop prospects promise a larger traffic over the railroads and increased purchasing of equipment is noted as a result. During the past week orders for about 10,000 cars and 300 locomotives were placed, while the buying movement is expected to gain momentum at an early date. In other finished steel new demands have fallen off, yet the volume of business is still very satisfactory for the mid-Summer season. In spite of hot weather and a shortage of labor, production has not been materially curtailed, the leading interest operating at approximately 90 per cent of capacity and the independent plants being busier than for two years.

A moderate trade is noted in cotton goods. Numerous buyers are in the market and show some anxiety as to supplies for future requirements as stocks in all positions are believed to be very small. Higher prices have been announced for some grades and the market throughout is very strong. The demand for woolens is about all that could be desired and raw wool is readily taken at the higher prices asked.

The shoe trade makes a further gain this week and New England and other manufacturers constantly receive some additional orders but the higher prices still tend to check business.

Mail Carriers Will Fly.

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs, colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection it's unequaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at R. R. Bellamy.

STOCKS AGAIN SLUGGISH

Tendency Was Upward but Movement Was Uncertain—General Electric Flurry Was Short Lived—U. S. Steel.

New York, July 26.—The promise held out in yesterday's late rise on the stock exchange was hardly fulfilled today. While the tendency was again upward, the movement was so sluggish and for the most part uncertain as to indicate the existence of a formidable bear faction.

Optimism provoked by the General Electric stock dividend suffered a severe setback when that issue fell sharply to almost seven points below the previous day's best price, the action of the directors evidently being regarded as without direct bearing upon industrial conditions as a whole.

United States Steel rose above yesterday's top figures early in the day with other active stocks but selling on the advance soon caused some reaction.

Aside from the Hill shares, which were again prominent for their consistent strength, most of today's gains were in stocks of a special or inactive character. National Biscuit, which has steadily declined since last week, added materially to its loss on rumors affecting the dividend.

Local money conditions were unchanged, except for greater ease in short time loans and a hardening of rates for four to six months. Clearing house banks are again likely to gain considerable cash and a further contraction of loans is probable.

In the bond market a one point decline in Oregon Short Line refunding fours was the feature. Total sales par value $1,613,000. United States government bonds were unchanged. Total sales 243,200 shares.

DIVIDE WITH NEGROES.

Progressives in Florida Will Hold Separate State Conventions.

Jacksonville, Fla., July 26.—The progressive party in Florida is being organized along unique lines. By mutual agreement the white and negro followers of the movement are to organize and operate separately.

A State mass convention of the whites will be held in Ocala tomorrow to which all who are favorable to the movement, irrespective of previous party affiliation, are invited. This convention will select half of the allotted number of delegates to the National convention to be held in Chicago August 5th, and, it is said, will nominate a complete State ticket, made up of both Democrats and Republicans and wage a vigorous campaign to elect it.

The negro branch of the party will also meet in State mass convention tomorrow. This convention will be held in St. Augustine so that it will be entirely separate and distinct from the white convention and far enough away so it cannot be confused with it. This convention will select the other half of the delegation to Chicago.

"I'M GOIN' TO MEET GOD"

After Calling to Friends, Negro Sexton Is Fatally Hurt

Galena, Ill., July 25.—The negro janitor of the South Presbyterian church, Thomas Johnson, 70 years old, on going up the belfry today, called to friends who saw him mount the steps, "I'm goin' to meet God."

was in this connection that he said he favored the establishment of minimum wage scales for women, and he added that later it probably would be necessary to make similar scales for male workers. His proposal of a guarantee of six days work and eight-hour shifts he restricted to the "continuous industries" like the steel mills in which work is kept up 24 hours a day and seven days a week.

Col. Roosevelt mentioned these two measures merely as illustrating the kind of legislation which he believes should be adopted to meet the conditions now existing.

The proposals of the Democrats, Col. Roosevelt said, were futile. He cited the Stanley Congressional investigation as illustrating his point. Referring to the recommendation that no corporation be permitted to control more than 30 per cent of any particular business he declared that such an arbitrary limitation would be foolish. The Democrats some time before, he said, favored the same plan only with a different limit, and he asserted that if an attempt were made to put it into effect the only result would be a series of law suits for four or five years terminating in decisions similar to the recent rulings of the Supreme Court in the American Tobacco and Standard Oil cases which, in his opinion have accomplished nothing.

The Democratic party he said, offered no solution of these problems, and as for the Democratic platform, he viewed it lightly, saying that it was written by William J. Bryan, who did not know what he wanted. The Republican party, now that the men in the National Progressive movement have left it, he asserted, is composed largely of the bosses and the financial interest.

EDUCATIONAL RALLY DAY

Great Meeting In Interest of Methodist College at Maxton, N. C.

Maxton, N. C., July 26.—Educational Rally Day was a complete success in every sense of the word. The weather, while warm, was excellent and the day was a most pleasant one to all so fortunate to be here. Early in the forenoon the success of the undertaking from the standpoint of numbers, was quite evident, many people coming from the country nearby and neighboring towns in automobiles, buggies and wagons. All the early trains, two on each road, also brought visitors interested in the welfare of Carolina College. About ten o'clock the Lumberton band which had been employed for the occasion, started the procession from Main street to Carolina College Park in the extreme western end of the town. Soon afterward the entire grove surrounding the administration building was swarming with people. The first speaker was Rev. G. T. Adams, of Wilmington. Following him was Gen. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, one of the State's most benevolent citizens, who has taken a keen interest in this college from its start. Gen. Carr spoke for half an hour of the great cause of education and the excellent location of this particular one on account of its geographical location, its accessibility and of the high character of the people in this section to be served by this Gen. Carr added another one thousand dollars to his already generous donation when it was first started. Immediately after this speech President Mercer invited all the men of the institution to meet in the administration building to discuss the financial needs of the college. At this meeting an additional five thousand dollars was subscribed. By this time the ladies had spread a most tempting dinner on a large table in the shady grove and it was just about this dinner hour the crowd reached its maximum for the day. It was estimated that no less than three thousand were fed and as many more could have been if they had come. The ladies of Carolina College Club had prepared on the ground booths where ice cream, cake, lemonade and other refreshments were served. Several hundred dollars in cash were realized from these. A money-bank made in exact likeness in miniature of the college building was in the grove and in this many contributions were deposited during the day. At four o'clock a baseball game was played between Maxton and McColl teams, the score being 2 to 2 at the end of the 9th, when the visitors had to take an A. C. L. train. The proceeds of this game went to the college fund of the day. This fund is for furnishing the kitchen and dining room at once, as President Mercer declares the college will be opened for the reception of students September 25th. Mr. Mercer deserves great credit for the phenomenal success which has attended his untiring efforts in behalf of the college since he was elected its head last Winter. Money has been extremely tight in this cotton section, owing to last year's crop being sold at bare cost of production or less; but with all this he has worked steadily and faithfully and as soon as the severe Winter was over work was begun in earnest and now the main building from the outside presents an appearance of completeness except for the windows and doors which are expected from the factory in a few days. Most of the plastering is finished on the second floor and in a few days the laying of the floors will be started. The electric wiring, plumbing and heating contracts are about completed and in two months Carolina College will be a reality. The hearty support and large patronage of this school is assured by the lively interest and generous contributions of those in this section. As soon as the present building is finished, one of the two large dormitories planned will be started and this no doubt will be ready for the Fall of 1913. At present the administration building will be used for all purposes, and being very commodious, will serve well for a while.

The trustees of the college met last night and appointed a committee who will elect teachers at once for the Fall term.

PREACHER COMES BACK.

Advises Miss Helen Gould to Work as Waitress a While

Grand Junction, Col., July 26.—Undaunted by the comment of Miss Helen Gould upon his recent sermon, in which he asserted old maids should be isolated on a barren island as a waste product, Rev. Elmer F. Huffner, of the First Christian church, today insisted that old maids are a detriment and a menace to society, and advised Miss Gould to seek a mate incognito in the backwoods.

"Miss Gould is a noble woman," he said, "but her nobleness would be greatly enhanced were she married. I don't attempt to dictate to Miss Gould what she should or should not do. Miss Gould has done more good for humanity than any other bachelor girl in this age, and she can still do unlimited good.

"Miss Gould is in a peculiar position, because of her riches. She can not be sure she is being wooed for love alone. The only way to solve this problem is for Miss Gould to accept a position in the backwoods incognito. Here she might find the right one, a righteous, industrious man, who would love her for her true self, and not for wealth.

"Her riches have handicapped her in the real enjoyment of life and I dare say she is not as happy in her private car with maids as is my servant girl.

"If Miss Gould wants two weeks of real enjoyment, two weeks of real happiness, let her disguise herself as a waitress and seek work in a cheap restaurant, let her clerk in a store or work as a chambermaid—anything, so long as she earns her own living and lives on less than $10 a week."

THE ARMY WORM.

Bulletin Issued From Atlanta of Advice to Farmers.

Atlanta, Ga., July 26.—For the benefit of farmers in the districts now being ravaged by the army worm between South Carolina and Texas, F. M. Webster, of the United States Department of Agriculture, and E. L. Worsham, State entomologist of Georgia, today issued a bulletin setting forth measures for checking the advance of the plague.

After pointing out that the worm begins its work in bottom lands and appears first in grass, where it can be most easily destroyed, the bulletin says:

"On the first appearance of the worm, farmers should either dust with powdered arsenate of lead, unfiluted or mixed at the rate of one pound of aronate to four or five pounds of flour, using three pounds of the poison, or eight or nine pounds of the diluted mixture to the acre. Arsonate of lead paste may be used in the form of a spray, the strength of two to three pounds of arsonate to to 50 gallons of water with equal quantities of unslaked lime. Spraying is preferable for young corn."

Paris green also will poison the worms, it is stated, but is not so safe to use.

"When worms are marching," the bulletin continues, "fields can sometimes be protected by running a deep furrow around the edge ahead of worms, leaving a straight side next to fi'd to be protected. When worms collect here, drag log through furrow.

"The third generation of worms is now entering the ground to transform into moths. These deposit eggs, which, hatching within a short time, will produce another generation of worms."

GIDEONS CRITICISE METHODISTS.

National Religious Order Complains of Lack of Co-opeeration.

Atlanta, Ga., July 26.—Criticisms of Methodists as being "narrow minded" and "unwilling to help" in the work of the Gideons, a National organization of traveling salesmen along religious lines, caused a heated clash in the first day's sessions of the National convention of the order.

M. Pashbrook, of Ohio, who conducted the afternoon session in the course of an address said:

"I have observed in the course of my work that the Methodists are not willing to help us in our work so much as other denominations. I believe their ministers to be narrow minded and too much centered in their own church. I desire to ask the Methodists here to look into this question and have a resolution passed at meetings of their churches instructing their ministers to cordially help the Gideons in their work."

In a moment pandemonium broke loose and a score or more of the several hundred delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada were on their feet in protest. An Atlanta delegate pointed out that Bishop Candler, of this city, had helped the organization in a time of dire distress.

At this point a motion was carried to end the discussion and refer the matter to a committee of five, to report to the convention tomorrow. This afternoon the delegates were given a barbecue at Cold Springs.

NOT "TRAIN BROKE."

Kentucky Militiamen Can't Stand for That Insinuation.

Anniston, Ala., July 26.—Kentucky militiamen no longer take offense at being classed as "Moonshiners," and "Wild Catters", because of the frequency of such classification, but a delegation of soldiers from the Kentucky regiments now here for the Summer maneuvers today filed a protest with a local paper against the imputation that they were not properly "train broke."

KILLED HER HUSBAND

Mecklenburg County Woman Who Is Enraged Over Daughter

Charlotte, N. C., July 26.—Mrs. V. J. Hartsell, of Mecklenburg county, killed her 60-year-old husband near here today. She explained she was enraged at the conduct of her husband and her daughter by a former marriage. The Hartsells had been married 25 years.

The scene of the tragedy was a quiet farm on the Catawba river. Mrs. Hartsell, standing in her doorway, shot her husband, returning from the farm, firing a second load when the prostrate form attempted to arise and the two loads of shot failing to produce death, she seized an axe and wielding this with all her strength, she made death certain.

Hartsell had just made a visit to his cantaloupe patch and was nearing the house when his wife appeared in the doorway and fired at a distance of 10 or 15 yards, the man falling at the first shot. As he attempted to stagger to his feet, the wife leveled the shotgun and sent a second load of shot into the stumbling form of her husband, again bringing him to the ground.

Seeing that life was not extinct and urged on by a woman's will and with the memory of many long years of wrong surging through her mind. Mrs. Hartsell is said to have laid hold of an axe at the doorway and approaching the form of her husband, proceeded to crush out the remaining spark of life with the heavy iron instrument, making ugly wounds on the injured man's body and adding more wounds to those already received.

Although carrying two loads of shot in his body and having been stricken with the heavy axe, Hartsell lived one hour after the tragedy occurred.

Mr. Gluyas Parks was the first man to reach the scene of the tragedy. He found Hartsell in a terrible condition, covered with blood and barely alive, lying on the ground. Messages for medical and other assistance were hastily sent out and in a short time there was a large gathering of neighbors and others attracted to the home by the news of the horrible tragedy.

The position occupied by Mrs. Hartsell was one probably without parallel in the annals of the county. When Mrs. Hartsell was married to Mr. Hartsell, her second husband, she had a little daughter. The child was taken into the family and reared by the mother and the step-father.

It is reputed that Hartsell was the father of two children by the stepdaughter and furthermore the stepdaughter lived in the family and was a member of it when the tragedy occurred. The situation and strange family relationship existing are most unusual and just such conditions are not known to have existed in the county at any other time in the past.

FRISCO BANKER'S TROUBLES

Wife and Servants Leave Home In Auto — Arrested

Ne York, July 26.—Mrs. Chas. M. Perkins, housekeeper; Frederick E. Patterson, chauffeur, and Patrick Walsh, valet, former employes in the household of Nicholas J. McNamara, of San Francisco, were arrested here late today, charged with grand larceny and being fugutives from justice. Mrs. Margaret McNamara, wife of the banker, with her two children, Chester, aged 10, and Wilbur, aged 12, were present when the arrests were made. The arrests followed the receipt of a telegram from the chief of police of San Francisco who charged the prisoners with grand larceny. Mr. McNamara yesterday swore out warrants for his three former employes charging them with stealing his automobile.

San Francisco dispatches today carried the assertion of the banker that Mrs. McNamara on June 21st, left home with three servants and her two children in a large touring car, journeying through Oregon and across country, and that his only word from his wife since, had been in the shape of frequent and lavish drafts on his bank account. He declared Mrs. Perkins had acquired an almost complete control over his wife's actions. The party was traced to Chicago and thence here.

The arrests were made in a leading hotel where they had registered. The banker's wife and her children were not disturbed. That they intended to sail for Germany on August 3rd, became apparent when steamship tickets were found on the prisoners. The servants declined to make an statements.

It is presumed the automobile was disposed of on the road.

The police have telegraphed San Francisco for instructions regarding Mrs. McNamara and the children. Until an answer is received she will remain at the hotel where she first registered.

Mrs. McNamara visited police headquarters tonight and talked with Lieutenant Funston, in charge of the Detective Bureau. The latter said Mrs. McNamara declared she was surprised to learn that her husband had caused the despatch to be sent which led to the arrest of her servants. She said that the automobile in which she had left home was her personal property and intimated that she would have something to say when the prisoners are arraigned tomorrow.

To Overcome Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Wrinkles

(From Outdoor Life.)

If you are freckled, tanned or sunburnt, dab a liberal amount of mercolized wax on the face and allow it to remain over night. When you wash off the wax in the morning, fine, flaky, almost invisible particles of cuticle come with it. Repeating this daily, the entire outer skin is absorbed, but so gradually, there's not the slightest hurt or inconvenience. Even the stubbornest freckles yield to this treatment. The underlying skin which forms the new complexion is so fresh and youthful-looking you'll marvel at the transformation. It's the only thing I know to actually discard an aged, faded, muddy or blotchy complexion. It is also good for arms, hands and neck. One ounce of mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store, is sufficient in most cases.

If sun and wind make you squint and frown, you're bound to cultivate wrinkles and crow'sfeet. To overcome these, bathe the face in a solution made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel.

WILMINGTON'S CLEANING-UP.

Mount Olive Watching Campaign—Personal and Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 26.—Mount Olive rejoices with the good people of Wilmington in the effort of the Superior Court now in session to rid the city of the lawless "blind tiger" element. There is no more reason why a prohibition statute should be violated habitually with impunity than for the violation of the law against murder or any other crime. Let the good work go on.

Crop conditions generally in this section are favorable and prospects good, but the recent light showers of almost daily occurrence may work some harm to the productiveness of some crops.

Potatoes yielded some profit to the growers here, but most of the other crops, including melons, have proven a disappointment on account of the low price prevailing throughout, although the yield was good.

Work was resumed on the new Methodist church, which is now nearing completion, and it is understood that the congregation of the Presbyterian church has selected and prepared a plan for its new church and that work will begin on the same as soon as the contract can be made. The plans of the architect show a magnificent structure.

The many friends of Mr. C. B. Hatch, one of the leading business men of this community and brother of Clerk of the Superior Court James R. Hatch, of Goldsboro, will be pained to know that his condition remains praetically unchanged after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Hatch is still confined to his home.

Misses Lucile Pope and Sarah Kornegay are attending a house party at Kenansville this week and incidentally attending the teachers' institute now in session there.

MONTGOMERY INVESTIGATION.

Police Commissioner Says He Insinuated Nothing Against Sheriff.

Montgomery, Ala., July 26.—The belief gained ground today that the county grand jury is sifting to the bottom the reports of alleged collusion between members of the Montgomery police department and gamblers, by which gambling dens were notified when raids were contemplated. Following interviews given out by Sheriff Horace Hood and Police Commissioner C. P. McIneyre, public attention has again been turned to the police department.

Mr. McIntyre declares that he made no request of Judge Brown to recommend that the grand jury investigate the sheriff's forces. This statement from McIntyre came after a report had been spread in the city that the commissioner in an effort to distract public attention from the police had suggested that the sheriff's department be subjected to a probe.

"I made no request of Judge Brown for an investigation," said Commissioner McIntyre. "I had a conversation with him in which I stated there was no necessity to give such charges to the grand jury, as there were no witnesses to go before them to substantiate by their evidence the insinuations and reflections such a charge would cast upon the sheriff. I told him, furthermore, that it was my conviction that Mr. Hood was an honest sheriff and had never done anything to justify the investigation by the grand jury."

Intense interest is centered in the grand jury's report, but no intimation has yet been given as to when the inquisitors will conclude their labors.
